

ACT

SIERRA LEONE CORRECTIONAL SERVICE ACT, 2014

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

PART I—PRELIMINARY

INSTITUTION AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE SIERRA LEONE CORRECTIONAL SERVICE

POWERS, DUTIES AND PRIVILEGES OF CORRECTION OFFICERS

Force by corrections officer.
to examine persons or vehicles for prohibited articles.
of corrections officers.
where corrections officers have powers of public officers.
responsibility of corrections officer in charge of stores, etc.
powers and duties of corrections officers.

Members of Council.
Appointment of Council.
Members in the Service etc.
Members and other members of the Service.
Members of the Service.
Members of Director-General.
Director-General and Deputy Director-General.
Establishment of Service.

PART V—ESTABLISHMENT AND CONTROL OF CORRECTIONAL CENTRES

33. Medical officers.
32. Women officers and female inmates.
officers.
31. Appointment of police officers to perform the duties of officers in charge.
30. Officers in charge.
29. Temporary correctional centres.
28. Declaration of correctional centres.

PART VI - ADMISSION AND CONTROL OF INMATES

39. Inmates in custody of officer in charge.
38. Access to other medical and related services.
37. Medical examination.
36. Information to be provided on admission.
35. Prohibition against admission of infant children of female inmates.
34. Admission of inmates.

27. Powers of officers holding disciplinary inquiries.
26. Search of corrections officers.
25. Corrections officers not to engage in dealings with inmates.
24. Corrections officers not to be members of trade unions.
23. Other offences.
22. Miscellaneous offences by corrections officers.
21. Assault on officer senior in rank.
20. Absence from duty without cause.

PART IV - OFFENCES BY CORRECTIONS OFFICERS

19. Non-liability for act done under authority of a warrant.
18. Deductions from salaries of certain officers.
17. Power to take measurements, photographs and fingerprints of inmates.

68. Punishment of inmates by officers in charge.

69. Punishment of inmates by the Director-General

70. Complaints Committee.

71. Punishment of correctional centre offences by Magistrates

72. Inmate's defence.

73. Medical examination before punishment.

74. Segregation of an inmate.

72. Register of punishments.

PART IX-ESCAPE OF INMATES

76. Escape of inmates

77. Corrections officer aiding inmate to escape.

PART X-OFFENCES IN RELATION TO INMATES

78. Prohibited articles.

79. Seizure of prohibited articles, etc.

80. Communicating with inmates.

81. Trespassing.

82. Unlawful possession of correctional centre articles.

83. Incitement and abetting of desertion, mutiny and sedition

84. Harboring inmates.

82. General penalty.

PART XI-MISCELLANEOUS

86. Disposal of deceased's estates.

87. Appointment of correctional centre Ministers.

88. Appointment of powers of correctional centre visitors.

89. Rewards and gratuities.

90. Power to make Rules.

91. Repeal of Act No. 22 of 1960.

er of inmates.

on of remand inmates.

y of person under arrest.

s required as witnesses.

s under Police escort.

s may be transferred to any other correctional centre.

al of inmates with contagious diseases.

al of inmates of unsound mind.

al of sick inmates to hospital.

ers for further security of inmates in hospital.

ions officer not liable for escape of inmates in hospital.

vement of inmates and abolition of hard labour.

vement of unconvicted inmates enance of certain inmates from private sources.

ion of male and female inmates.

es not to be detained in correctional centres.

to be subject to correctional centre discipline.

as to the Council.

PART VII - RELEASE AND REMISSION

e of inmates.

ion of part of sentence of certain inmates.

al criminals may be released subject to Supervision Order.

v of sentences.

e on parole.

PART VIII - OFFENCES BY INMATES

ional centre offences.

ments that may be imposed by subordinate court.

ment of minor correctional centre offences by junior or mate officers.

er of case.

ment of minor correctional centre offences by senior officer or Justice.

Sierra Leone

No.

The Sierra Leone Correctional Service Act, 2014.

Being an Act to establish the Sierra Leone Correctional Service, introduce provisions for the organisation and management of correctional centres and for other related matters.

1

ENACTED by the President and Members of Parliament in their present Parliament assembled.

2014

“appellant inmate” means any convicted criminal inmate who is detained in a correctional centre as a result of a conviction which is the subject matter of an appeal or notice of which has been accepted but the decision in regard to which has not been given;

“civil inmate” means any inmate other than a criminal inmate;

“convicted criminal inmate” means any criminal inmate under sentence of a court or court martial;

“correctional centre” means a correctional centre established under this Act;

“corrections officer” means any member of the Correctional Service of whatever rank;

“Council” means the Zimbabwe Correctional Service Council established by section 9;

“court” means any court or authority entitled to pass a sentence in a criminal case or to order a person to be detained in custody in any case;

“criminal inmate” means any person duly committed to custody under the writ, warrant or order of any court exercising criminal jurisdiction or by order of court martial;

“Director” means a Director of Correctional Services not under detention in any correctional centre;

“inmate” means any person, whether convicted or not, under detention in any correctional centre;

“Judge” means a Judge of the High Court

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. This Act shall apply to all correctional centres administered by the Government, all inmates lawfully held in such correctional centres and to all members of the Zimbabwe Correctional Service.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to render unlawful the detention of inmates in chiefdom or police detention centres or lock-ups.

(3) The Minister may by order apply all or any of the provisions of this Act or any subsidiary legislation made under it to any correctional or detention centre or lock-up administered by the Government, any Chiefdom Council or by the Police or to any inmate or class of inmates detained in any correctional or detention centre or lock-up or to any person employed in the control or administration of any correctional or detention centre or lock-up.

(4) The Minister may by statutory instrument revoke or vary any order made under subsection (3).

(5) The Minister may in any order provide that in the application of any provision of this Act or any subsidiary legislation made under it to any correctional centre or lock-up or to any inmate or class of inmates or to any person employed in the control or administration of any correctional centre the provision shall be subject to such adaptations and modifications as he may think necessary.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“aggravated correctional centre offence” means an offence declared to be such under rules made under this Act;

"young inmate" means an inmate who is apparently or above the age of eighteen years and less than the age of twenty-one years.

PART II—CONSTITUTION AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE SIERRA LEONE CORRECTIONAL SERVICE

3. There is hereby established a body to be known as the Sierra Leone Correctional Service.

4. (1) The Service shall have—

(a) a Director-General who shall be the head of the Service; and

(b) a Deputy Director-General.

(2) The Director-General and the Deputy Director-General shall be appointed by the President acting on the advice of the Council and subject to the approval of Parliament.

5. (1) The Director-General, as head of the Service shall have responsibility for the operational control and administration of the Service and the control and supervision of all inmates subject to the directions of the Council.

(2) The Director-General may, subject to this Act and the directions of the Council, from time to time make standing orders and give administrative directions for observance by all corrections officers in carrying out their duties under this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other enactment, the Director-General shall have the power to make and decision, give any directive and do any act or thing to ensure the security and good governance of any correctional centre.

"junior corrections officer" means a corrections officer of a class declared by the Minister to be a junior corrections officer;

"justice of the peace" means a justice of the peace appointed under the Courts Act, 1972;

"juvenile" means a person under the apparent age of eighteen years;

"Medical Officer" means either the District Medical Officer of the district in which the correctional centre is situated or, in his absence any registered or licensed Government medical practitioner or the medical officer appointed to a correctional centre if a medical officer has been so appointed;

"Minister" means the Minister responsible for correctional services;

"minor correctional centre offence" means an offence declared to be such under rules made under this Act;

"officer-in-charge" means the corrections officer appointed by the Director to be in charge of any correctional centre and, in correctional centres where no such corrections officer has been appointed, includes an administrative officer in charge of a correctional centre;

"prohibited article" means an article the introduction or removal into or out of a correctional centre of which is prohibited by this Act,

"senior corrections officer" means a corrections officer of a class declared by the Minister to be a senior corrections officer;

- (a) the Vice-President who shall be Chairman;
 - (b) the Minister responsible for correctional services;
 - (c) the Chairman, Public Service Commission;
 - (d) a representative from civil society whose work is related to correctional services;
 - (e) a representative from the Sierra Leone Youth Commission;
 - (f) a representative from the Ministry responsible for social welfare;
 - (g) the Director-General;
 - (h) the President of the Sierra Leone Bar Association or his representative; and
 - (i) two retired Senior Prisons Officers appointed by the President one of whom shall be a woman.
- (3) The Permanent Secretary, Ministry responsible for Internal Affairs, shall be Secretary to the Council.
- (4) The Council shall regulate its own proceedings.

10. (1) The Council shall advise the President on all major policy matters relating to correctional centres and the Services including administration, finance and any other matter as the President shall require.

- (4) In the absence of the Director-General, the Deputy Director-General shall have the power to perform all the functions of the Director-General and in the absence of the Director-General and the Deputy Director-General, a Senior Corrections Officer generally specified by the Director-General, shall perform the functions of the Director-General.
- 6. The Service shall have such Departments as the Director-General may from time to time determine.
- 7. (1) Every department shall be headed by a Director who shall be appointed by the Council after consultation with the Director-General.
- (2) There shall be such other staff or members of the Service as may be necessary for the efficient performance of the functions of the Service.
- 8. (1) The power to appoint persons to hold or act in any office in the Service from the rank of Assistant Deputy Superintendent of Corrections and above, excluding the Director General, and the Deputy Director-General, (including the power to make appointments, promotion and to confirm appointments), and to dismiss, reduce in rank and to exercise disciplinary control over persons holding or acting in such offices shall vest in the Council.
- (2) The power to appoint persons to hold or act in any office in the Service below the rank of Assistant Superintendent of Corrections (including the power to make appointments on promotion and to confirm appointments), and to dismiss, reduce in rank and to exercise disciplinary control over persons holding or acting in such offices shall vest in the Council acting on the recommendation of the Director-General.
- 9. (1) There is hereby established a body to be known as the Sierra Leone Correctional Services Council.

(2) The Council shall consist of-

13. Within a correctional centre and while in charge of inmates and for the purpose of-

- (a) conveying any person to or from correctional centre; or
- (b) apprehending any inmate who may have escaped from a correctional centre or who may have escaped while being conveyed to or from a correctional centre, every corrections officer shall have the powers, protections and privileges of a police officer.

14. Any corrections officer or police officer may, on reasonable suspicion that a corrections officer has contravened section 20 arrest that person without warrant and shall within seventy-two hours of the arrest, bring the person before a Magistrate.

15. (1) Any corrections officer may examine anything within or being brought in or out of a correctional centre and may stop any search and vehicle or person within a correctional centre or going to or out of a correctional centre, or whether within or without a correctional centre and any person who or any vehicle which is within authority close to any inmates or inmates if the corrections officer has reason to suspect that the person or vehicle is carrying a prohibited article or any property belonging to the Government in use in a correctional centre.

(2) The senior corrections officer on duty in a correctional centre shall refuse admission to the correctional centre of any person who is not willing to be searched.

(3) The senior corrections officer on duty in a correctional centre shall order any person within a correctional centre who refuses to be searched to leave the correctional centre and if such person refuses to leave, shall order his removal.

(2) The Council shall have responsibility for the removal and discharge of inmates in accordance with this Act.

PART III - POWERS, DUTIES AND PRIVILEGES OF CORRECTIONS OFFICERS

11. Every corrections officer shall-

- (a) exercise such powers and perform such duties as are by law conferred or imposed on corrections officers of his rank or class; and
- (b) shall obey all lawful directions in respect of the execution of the duties of his office which he may receive from his senior officers.

12. (1) Every corrections officer in charge shall be charged-

- (a) with the arms, accoutrements, ammunition, clothing and all other public stores and foodstuffs issued and delivered for the use of the correctional centres and corrections officers under his control;
- (b) with all public money for which he may be held accountable; and
- (c) subject to this Act, with all vaulted money, articles of clothing and other property entrusted to his keeping as being the property of inmates.

(2) Every corrections officer charged with any of the items, articles or other things mentioned in subsection (1), shall account for them in the case of their being lost or damaged, otherwise than by unavoidable accident, theft, robbery or actual service.

officer or another corrections officer or other person;

(ii) is engaged in a combined break-in or in an attempt to force, break open or scale the outside door, gate, fence or enclosure wall of a correctional centre or an inside door, gate, fence or wall of the correctional centre; or

(iii) whilst engaged in any activity mentioned in sub-paragraph (ii), is using violence against the corrections officer or another corrections officer or other person.

(3) Resort shall not be had to the use of a weapon-

(a) as is authorised in sub-paragraph (a) of sub-section (2) unless-

(i) the corrections officer has reasonable grounds to believe that he cannot otherwise prevent the escape; and

(ii) the corrections officer gives warning to the inmate that the corrections officer is about to use the weapon against him and

(iii) the warning given by the corrections officer is unheeded;

(b) as is authorised in sub-paragraph (i) and sub-paragraph (a) of sub-section (2) unless-

(4) If on stopping and searching any vehicle or person under sub-section (1) a corrections officer finds any prohibited article or any property belonging to the Government in use in a correctional centre he shall arrest the person or the person on the vehicle who appears to have charge of the article or property and shall as soon as practicable cause that person to be handed over to a police officer or to be taken to the nearest police station.

(2) Any search of a woman under this section shall be made by a female corrections officer with due regard to decency.

16. (1) A corrections officer may use such force against an inmate as is reasonably necessary in order to make the inmate obey lawful orders.

(2) Subject to this section, a corrections officer may use weapon against-

(a) an inmate who is--

(i) escaping or attempting to escape and returns when called upon to return;

(ii) engaged in a combined outbreak or in an attempt to force, break open or scale the outside door, gate, fence or enclosure wall of a correctional centre; or

(iii) using violence on him or another corrections officer or another inmate or other person; and

(b) a person who-

(i) whilst assisting an inmate to escape, uses violence against the corrections

(2) The Council shall make Rules for the taking of measurements, photographs and fingerprints under this section, and for regulating their destruction.

18. (1) All fines, stoppages for clothing and equipment or pay forfeited may be deducted from the pay of any member of the Service who has incurred the liability.

(2) All fines and stoppages for clothing and equipment or pay forfeited shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

(3) All debts incurred by purchases from the Corrections Centre Canteen may be deducted from the pay of any member of the Service who has incurred the liability.

19. (1) Where the defence to any suit instituted against a corrections officer is that the act complained of was done in obedience to a warrant purporting to be issued by a court or other competent authority, the court shall, on production of the warrant and on proof that the act complained of was done in obedience to the warrant, enter judgment in favour of the corrections officer.

(2) No proof of the signature on a warrant shall be required unless the court has reason to doubt its genuineness and where it is proved that the signature is not genuine, judgment shall nevertheless be given in favour of the corrections officer if it is proved that at the time the act complained of was committed, the corrections officer believed on reasonable grounds that the signature was genuine.

PART IV - OFFENCES BY CORRECTIONS OFFICERS

20. A corrections officer who is absent from duty without reasonable excuse for a period exceeding twenty-one days commencing on the date of his appointment to a term of five hundred thousand leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

(i) the corrections officer has reasonable grounds to believe that he or another corrections officer or other person, as the case may be, is in danger of suffering grievous bodily harm

(ii) the inmate is engaged with other persons in breaking out or attempting to break out of any part of a correctional centre and when called upon to desist continues to break out or attempt to break out;

(iii) the inmate is engaged with others in riotous behaviour in a correctional centre and refuses to desist when called upon to do so; or

(vi) the inmate is endangering the life of or is likely to inflict grave injury to the corrections officer or to any other corrections officer or person and the use of firearms is the only practicable way of controlling the inmate.

(4) No corrections officer shall, in the presence of a corrections officer senior to himself make use of a weapon as authorised in subsection (2), except on the orders of that senior corrections officer.

(5) In every case when force is used a corrections officer shall use the minimum force necessary in the circumstances and the use of weapons, in pursuance of the provisions of this section, shall be as far as possible to disable and not to kill.

17. (1) An officer in charge shall cause measurements, photographs and fingerprints to be taken of any inmate by any corrections officer or other person authorised by the Director General to take measurements, photographs or fingerprints.

23. (1) No corrections officer or any person with any duty with inmates shall sell, supply or receive directly or indirectly any benefit or advantage from the sale or supply of any article to or for the use of any inmate or for the use of any correctional centre, nor shall that officer or person directly or indirectly have an interest in any contract or agreement for the sale or supply of that article.

(2) No corrections officer or any person with any duty with inmates shall directly or indirectly have any pecuniary interest in the purchase of any correctional centre supplies, or receive any discounts, gifts or other consideration from contractors for or seller of such supplies or have any pecuniary dealing with inmates or with their friends with regard to them or on behalf of any inmate, hold any unauthorized communication with any person.

(3) No person shall wear or use without due authority any uniform or decoration supplied to or authorized for use by any member of the Service or any uniform or decoration so nearly resembling the uniform or decoration as to be calculated to deceive.

(4) No person shall falsely represent himself by act or words to be a person who is or has been entitled to use or wear any uniform or decoration referred to in subsection (3).

(5) Any corrections officer or person who contravenes any provision of this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two million leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

24. (1) No corrections officer shall be or become a member of-

- (a) any trade union or any body or association affiliated to a trade union;
- (b) any body or association the objects or one of the objects of which is to control or

21. Any corrections officer who assaults, threatens or insults any officer senior to him in the Service, when that senior officer is on duty or when the assault, threat or insult relates to or is consequent upon the discharge of duty by the officer so assaulted, threatened or insulted, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one million leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

22. Any corrections officer who without lawful authority-

(a) knowingly allows any intoxicating liquor, tobacco, hemp, drug, opiate, money, clothing, provisions, letter, document or other article to be sold to or received from or used by or on behalf of any inmate; or

(b) lends or gives to any inmate any intoxicating liquor, tobacco, hemp, drug, opiate, money, clothing, provisions, letter, document or other article; or

(c) knowingly allows any letter, document or other article to be brought out of the correctional centre, or to be conveyed from any inmate; or

(d) without the permission of the Director informs the press or any other person of any matter concerning a correctional centre or an inmate or any matter derived from official sources connected with or related to the Service.

Any person who commits an offence under this section is liable on conviction to a fine not less than one million leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

(2) A corrections officer who contravenes subsection (1), (2), (3) or (4) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

26. (1) Any corrections officer may at any time be searched on the orders of a corrections officer senior in rank to that corrections officer.

(2) The officer in charge may at any time order the division quarters occupied by another corrections officer to be searched by corrections officer senior in rank to that other corrections officer.

27. (1) A corrections officer inquiring into a disciplinary offence alleged to have been committed by any other correction officer shall have power to summon and examine witnesses on oath or affirmation, to require the production of all documents relevant to such inquiry and to adjourn the inquiry from time to time, and for the purposes of this inquiry to administer oaths.

(2) Any person summoned as a witness under subsection (1) who fails to attend an inquiry at the time and place mentioned in the summons or on any adjournment thereof or refuses to answer any question lawfully put to him at the inquiry commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), a witness shall be obliged to answer any question which may tend to incriminate him or render him liable to any forfeiture or penalty.

(4) Any person summoned as a witness under this section shall be entitled to be paid from the general revenue such sum as is allowed to witnesses when attending the court of a magistrate.

influence salaries, wages, pensions or conditions of service of the Service;

(c) any body or association the objects or one of the objects of which is to control or influence conditions of employment in any trade or profession.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall be deemed to prohibit corrections officers from becoming members of any corrections officers staff association approved by the Council and published in the Gazette.

(3) Any corrections officer who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one million leones twelve months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

(4) For the purposes of this section, "trade union" has the same meaning as it has in the Trade Unions Act.

28. (1) No corrections officer shall receive any fee or gratuity from, or have any business dealings with inmates or discharged inmates or with friends of inmates or with visitors to a correctional centre.

(2) No corrections officer shall correspond with or hold any intercourse with the friends or relatives of any inmates, unless expressly authorised to do so by the officer in charge.

(3) No corrections officer except in accordance with this Act or in accordance with orders or directions issued by the Director, shall convey any communication or other article to or from any inmate.

(4) No corrections officer unless so authorised by the Director shall give any certificate or testimonial to, or in respect of, any inmate as regards his conduct in a correctional centre or otherwise.

the Director General shall subject to the approval of the Council issue directives for the shelter and safe custody in temporary correctional centres of so many of the inmates as cannot be conveniently or safely kept in the correctional centre, and every temporary correctional centre shall be a correctional centre for the purposes of this Act.

30. (1) In every correctional centre there shall be an officer in charge of the correctional centre who shall be designated "the officer in charge".

(2) In any place where there is a correctional centre but no corrections officer has been appointed to be in charge of it, the administrative officer in charge of that place or any administrative officer deputed by him shall be in charge of such correctional centre.

(3) The administrative officer shall be subject to the orders and directions of the Director-General, and shall, subject to any express limitations which may be imposed on him by the Director-General in writing, have all the powers conferred by law upon an officer in charge.

(4) Every officer in charge shall—

- (a) supervise and control all matters in connection with the correctional centres in which the officer is appointed;
- (b) keep or cause to be kept such records as the Director-General may from time to time direct;
- (c) be responsible to the Director-General for the conduct and treatment of corrections officers and inmates under the officer's control, and for the due observance by corrections officers and inmates of the provisions of this Act and of all rules, directions and orders made under this Act.

PART V—ESTABLISHMENT AND CONTROL OF CORRECTIONAL CENTRES

28. (1) The Council may by notice in the Gazette declare any building, enclosure or place or any part thereof to be a correctional centre for the purposes of this Act, and may in like manner declare that any correctional centre shall cease to be a correctional centre for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every correctional centre shall include the grounds and buildings within the correctional centre enclosure and also any other grounds or buildings belonging or attached to the correctional centre and used by inmates or the staff of the correctional centre.

(3) In any writ, warrant, or other legal instrument in which it may be necessary to describe a particular correctional centre, any description designating a correctional centre by reference to the name of the place or town where it is situated, or other definite description, shall be valid and sufficient for all purposes.

(4) The buildings, enclosures or places or any part thereof which at the commencement of this Act are in use as correctional centres shall be deemed to be correctional centres for the purposes of this Act.

29. Whenever—

- (a) it appears to the Director-General that the number of inmates in any correctional centre is greater than can be conveniently kept in it and that it is not convenient to transfer the excess number to some other correctional centre; or
- (b) owing to the outbreak of epidemic disease within a correctional centre or for any other reason, it is desirable to provide for temporary shelter or safe custody of any inmates,

- (a) be responsible for the health of all inmates in a correctional centre;
- (b) cause all inmates to be medically examined as such times as shall be prescribed; and
- (c) ensure that a record is kept of the state of health of every inmate.

PART VI—ADMISSION AND CONTROL OF INMATES

34. (1) Inmates shall be first admitted to a correctional centre only on the authority of a signed warrant or other lawful order for detention, and only at the times prescribed by regulations or provided for by order or directive of the Council or the Director-General during the hours during which inmates may be processed for admission.

(2) Upon presentation of a person to be held in custody the officer in charge is to be satisfied-

- (a) that the person is the person to whom the warrant or order relates;
- (b) of the age of the person; and
- (c) that the warrant or order is signed and dated and purporting to be made under the authority of an enactment applicable and in force in Sierra Leone.

(3) A refusal by a person to confirm his identity, or a apparent technical error in a warrant or order, shall not be grounds for refusing admission of a person under its authority, but where there is doubt as to the identity of a person or as to the validity of the warrant or order, an officer in charge shall be entitled-

31. (1) Where in any correctional centre the number of correctional officers detailed for duty is insufficient to secure the good management and administration of the centre it shall be lawful for the Inspector-General of Police to employ temporarily such number of police officers as the officer in charge considers necessary to secure the good management and administration of the correctional centre.

(2) Every police officer appointed in pursuance of subsection (1) shall have all the powers and perform in such correctional centre all the duties of a corrections officer of the rank to which the officer in charge shall appoint him and, for the purposes of this Act, shall be deemed to be a corrections officer of that rank; but no police officer shall by reason of this section be a member of the service.

(3) Where on the removal of any inmate from any correctional centre the staff is insufficient to provide escort for such inmate it shall be lawful for the officer in charge of the correctional centre from which the inmate is to be removed, to deliver the inmate to any police officer who may be detailed for such duty.

32. In every correctional centre in which female inmates are imprisoned there shall be women corrections officers who shall have the care and superintendence of the female inmates, and who shall be responsible for their discipline.

33. (1) There shall be a medical officer stationed in or responsible for every correctional centre.

(2) In appointing or designating a medical officer, regard shall be had to the need for that officer to have knowledge of psychiatry and to the particular needs of female inmates.

(3) The medical officer shall-

(e) the risks involved in sharing toothbrushes and razors, and engaging in unsafe sexual practices or tattooing.

37. (1) Upon admission to and immediately before discharge from a correctional centre, every inmate shall be examined by the medical officer.

(2) Until an inmate has been examined by the medical officer, every inmate on admission shall, so far as practicable, be kept apart from other inmates.

(3) An officer in charge may order that inmates be medically examined, and the Medical Officer shall examine and treat any inmate who makes a request to be examined.

(4) Where a medical officer is of the view that an inmate is in need of specialist treatment, including psychiatric care, the medical officer shall make a report to the officer in charge, and shall make arrangements for the inmate to be referred to an appropriate medical practitioner.

(5) An inmate who is suffering from any disease or illness shall only be held separately from other inmates upon the order of the medical officer.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), an officer in charge may order the separation of an inmate who is apparently suffering from an illness pending arrangements for a medical officer to visit and confirm the need for separation; but no separation shall be ordered only on the basis of an inmate's HIV/AIDS status.

38. Arrangements shall be made for the provision of other medical and related services, in accordance with any relevant policy or programme of the Ministry responsible for health, including-

(a) appropriate dental treatment, which shall not be confined to extractions;

(a) to refuse the admission of the person; and

(b) to require that the person be taken back to the court or person who has signed the warrant in order for matters of identity or process to be confirmed or rectified.

(4) Where it appears that the person to whom the warrant or order relates is or may be under the age of 18 years, the officer in charge shall take appropriate action to bring the person before the court for confirmation of the legality of the confinement of the person in the correctional centre.

39. No infant child of a female inmate shall be received into a correctional centre unless there are adequate facilities and provision within that correctional centre for the care and maintenance of infant children of female inmates.

40. As soon as practicable after admission, every inmate shall be given appropriate information about-

(a) any right of appeal, which information shall be given within twenty four hours of admission;

(b) the rights of inmates whilst in custody as provided for in this Act or prescribed by regulations, orders or directives of the Council or the Director-General;

(c) their duties, responsibilities and obligations whilst in custody;

(d) the procedures whereby they might earn low security classifications and be entitled to privileges and early release; and

(2) Inmates on remand or committed for trial, who are required to attend any court, may be taken for that purpose into police custody at the correctional centre to which they have been committed and shall remain under police supervision and guard until they are returned to the correctional centre or discharged by the court.

(3) Where on the removal of an inmate from an correctional centre the number of corrections officers is insufficient to provide escort for that inmate, the officer in charge of that correctional centre from which the inmate is to be removed may, with the general or special permission of the Inspector-General of Police deliver the inmate to any police officer detailed for that duty.

(4) While an inmate is in the custody of a police officer in accordance with this Act the inmate shall be deemed to be in lawful custody, and escape from the custody of the police officer shall be deemed to be escape from lawful custody for the purposes of an enactment.

(5) A police officer to whom an inmate is delivered under subsection (3) shall have the same powers and be subject to the same responsibilities, discipline and penalties and to the same authorities as a corrections officer would have been and be subject to in like circumstances.

41. Every person remanded to a correctional centre by a court or other competent authority, charged with a crime or offence shall be delivered to the officer in charge together with the warrant of commitment, and the officer in charge shall detain that person according to the terms of the warrant and shall cause that person to be delivered to the court or competent authority, or shall discharge that person at the time named in and according to the terms of the warrant.

- (b) public awareness and education programmes;
- (c) vaccination programmes or programmes of specific treatment for certain diseases; and
- (d) support services for infants and mothers, where infants are permitted to remain in the confines of a correctional centre.

39. (1) Every inmate shall be deemed to be in the lawful custody of the officer in charge and, subject to this Act, shall remain in such lawful custody and be subject to correctional centre discipline and to all laws, orders and directives relating to correctional centres and inmates during the whole period of the inmate's imprisonment or detention, whether the inmate is or is not within the precincts of a correctional centre.

(2) Every officer in charge shall keep and detain all persons duly committed to the officer's custody by any court or other competent authority, according to the provisions of the warrant or order by which that person has been committed, or until that person is discharged by due course of law.

40. (1) An inmate who is being removed or transferred from one correctional centre to another or to any other place shall, while outside the correctional centre, be kept in the custody of the corrections officer or police officer authorised under this Act or any other enactment to remove or convey the inmate and shall, subject to this Act or any other enactment, be deemed to be in lawful custody of the officer in charge of the correctional centre from which that inmate is being removed or transferred.

(2) Where on the removal of an inmate from a correctional centre the number of corrections officers is insufficient to provide escort for such inmate, the officer in charge of the correctional centre from which the inmate is to be removed may, with the general or special permission of the Inspector-General of Police, deliver the inmate to any police officer detailed for that duty.

(3) While an inmate is in the custody of a police officer in accordance with this Act, the inmate shall be deemed to be in lawful custody and escape from the custody of the police officer shall be deemed to be escape from lawful custody for purposes of any enactment.

45. Inmates on being sentenced or during confinement may be transferred to a correctional centre established under this Act or the Council or the Director-General may by general or special order direct.

46. (1) Where a medical officer reports to the Director-General that an inmate is suffering from a contagious disease, the Director-General may, subject to subsection (2), by order in writing, direct the removal of that inmate to any institution or place where the inmate shall be kept and treated until such time as he is cured of the disease or until such time as he ceases to be liable to confinement in a correctional centre, whichever may first occur.

(2) No order shall be made by the Director-General under subsection (1) unless and until the Director-General has received notification in writing that the person in charge of the institution or place to which he wishes to remove the inmate is able and willing to receive that inmate.

(3) So long as any inmate who shall have been removed to an institution or place under this section remains in that place and remains liable to confinement in a correctional centre, the person in charge of that institution or place shall from time to time transmit to the officer in charge of the correctional centre from which that inmate

42. Every person arrested in pursuance of any warrant or order of any court or other competent authority if the court is not sitting, may be delivered to an officer in charge for custody and the officer in charge shall cause that person to be brought before the court or other competent authority at its next sitting.

43. (1) Subject to section 16 of the Criminal Procedure Act, whenever the presence of a person confined in a correctional centre is required by a court or other competent authority, the court or competent authority may issue an order addressed to the officer in charge requiring production before the court or other competent authority of that person in proper custody at the time and place to be named in the order.

(2) The officer in charge shall cause the person named in the order referred to in subsection (1) to be brought up as directed, and shall provide for the person's safe custody during the person's absence from that correctional centre, and the court or competent authority may by endorsement on the order require the person named in the order to be again brought up at any time to which the matter in which such person is required may be adjourned.

(3) An inmate taken from a correctional centre in pursuance of an order made under this section shall, whilst outside the correctional centre, be kept in such custody as the officer in charge may direct and whilst in that custody shall be deemed to be in lawful custody.

44. (1) Inmates on remand or committed for trial, who are required to attend any court, may be taken for that purpose into police custody at the correctional centre to which they have been committed and shall remain under police supervision and guard until returned to the correctional centre or discharged by the court.

47. (1) Whenever a medical officer or officer in charge is of the opinion that an inmate is of unsound mind the medical officer or officer in charge shall take all necessary action to procure the inmate's certification under the Lunacy Act.

(2) If that inmate is certified to be of unsound mind the inmate shall be removed as soon as convenient from the correctional centre and confined in a mental hospital.

(3) Whenever an inmate removed to a mental hospital is entitled to be discharged in accordance with any enactment relating to mental treatment, the medical superintendent in charge of the mental hospital shall notify the officer in charge of the correctional centre from which the inmate was removed and the inmate shall be delivered into the officer's custody if still liable to be confined in a correctional centre, and if not so liable, be released.

(4) The period during which the inmate has been detained in the mental hospital shall be reckoned as part of the inmate's term of imprisonment.

48. (1) In the case of serious illness of an inmate confined in a correctional centre in which there are inadequate medical facilities or unsuitable accommodation for that inmate, the officer in charge on the advice of the medical officer, may make an order for the removal of the inmate to a hospital.

(2) In cases of emergency or in the absence of the medical officer, removal of an inmate to a hospital may be ordered by the officer in charge without the advice of the medical officer.

(3) An inmate who has been removed to a hospital under this section shall be deemed to be under detention in the correctional centre from which the inmate was so removed.

(4) Whenever the medical officer in charge of the hospital considers that the health of an inmate removed to a hospital under this section no longer requires detention in it, the medical officer shall notify the officer in charge.

Whenever removed, a certificate signed by the person in charge that it is in his opinion necessary that the inmate should remain in the institution in place.

(4) As soon as, in the opinion of the person in charge of the institution or place to which an inmate has been removed, it is no longer necessary that the inmate should remain in the institution or place the person in charge shall transmit to the officer in charge of the correctional centre from which the inmate was removed, a certificate stating that the necessity has ceased.

(2) Upon receipt of a certificate pursuant to subsection (4) the officer in charge shall—

(a) if the inmate is still liable to confinement in a correctional centre, forthwith cause the inmate to be brought back to the correctional centre from which the inmate was removed or to any other correctional centre as the officer in charge thinks fit;

(b) if the inmate has completed the sentence in respect of which the inmate was committed, cause the inmate to be released forthwith.

(d) Every reasonable precaution shall be taken by the person in charge of an institution or place and other persons employed in the institution or place to prevent the escape of any inmate who may at any time be under treatment in the institution or place and it shall be lawful for these persons to take such measures as shall be necessary for preventing the escape of that inmate.

(7) Nothing shall be done under the authority of this section which, in the opinion of the person in charge of the institution or place to which an inmate has been removed, is likely to be prejudicial to the health of that inmate.

20. If any inmate escapes during the time in any hospital or institution, no corrections officer shall be held answerable for the escape, unless the inmate shall have been in the personal custody of the officer; and no medical officer or person in charge of the hospital or institution or other person shall be answerable for the escape unless it can be shown that that person helped the inmate to escape or has willfully neglected to take reasonable precautions to prevent the escape.

21. (1) With effect from the commencement of this Act, every sentence of imprisonment whether the sentence was one of imprisonment with hard labour or simple imprisonment passed upon any criminal inmate, shall subject the inmate during the term of the sentence to work at such labour as may be directed by the officer in charge with the general approval of the Director-General and so far as practicable the labour shall take place in association or outside cells with other criminal inmates.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other enactment, no person shall be sentenced by a court to imprisonment with hard labour.

(3) Every enactment conferring power on a court to pass a sentence of imprisonment with hard labour in any case shall be construed as conferring a power to pass a sentence of imprisonment for a term not exceeding a term for which a sentence of imprisonment with hard labour could have been passed in that case immediately before the commencement of this Act, and so far as any enactment provides that a person sentenced to imprisonment or committed to a correctional centre is or may be directed to be treated to any special form of imprisonment ceases to have effect.

(4) The medical officer may order any inmate to be excused from labour or to perform light labour, and any inmate ordered to perform light labour shall be permitted to work on any labour for which the inmate is considered fit by the medical officer.

(2) Upon receipt of notification from the medical officer in charge of a hospital, pursuant to subsection (4) the officer in charge shall—

- (a) if the inmate is still liable to be confined in a correctional centre, forthwith cause the inmate to be brought back to the correctional centre from which he was removed; or
- (b) if the inmate has completed the sentence in respect of which he was committed, cause the inmate to be released forthwith.

(6) Every reasonable precaution shall be taken by the officer in charge of a hospital to prevent the escape of any inmates who may at any time be under treatment at the hospital, and it shall be lawful for such officer in charge to take such measures as shall be necessary for preventing the escape of such inmates.

(7) Nothing shall be done under the authority of this section which, in the opinion of the medical officer in charge of the hospital, is likely to be prejudicial to the health of the inmate.

22. (1) Where on account of the gravity of the offence for which an inmate may be in custody or for any other reason, the officer in charge considers it desirable to take special measures for the security of that inmate while undergoing treatment in hospital, it shall be lawful for the officer in charge to give the inmate into the charge of not less than two correction officers.

(2) One of the two corrections officers shall always be with the inmate by day and night and they shall be vested with power and authority to do all things necessary to prevent the inmate from escaping and shall be answerable for the inmate's safe custody until such time as the inmate is handed over to the officer in charge on the inmate's discharge from hospital or until such time as the inmate's sentence expires whichever may first occur.

25. (1) No juvenile shall be detained in a correctional centre and where before or at the commencement of this Act, a juvenile is detained in a correctional centre, the Minister shall within the months of commencement of this Act, order the removal from the correctional centre of the juvenile and his detention in a place other than a correctional centre, subject to such conditions as the Minister may determine.

(2) No juvenile removed from a correctional centre pursuant to subsection (1) shall be detained after the expiration of the period for which the juvenile was subject to detention in a correctional centre.

26. Every inmate shall be subject to correctional centre discipline and to all laws, orders and directions relating to correctional centres and inmates during the whole time of the inmate's imprisonment, whether the inmate is or is not within the precincts of any correctional centre.

27. Every inmate shall have a right to petition the Council, but in exercising that right shall address the Council through the Director-General.

PART VII—RELEASE AND REMISSION

28. (1) The officer in charge shall be responsible for the due discharge of all inmates immediately upon their becoming entitled to release.

(2) Except at the inmate's own request, no inmate undergoing treatment by the medical officer will be discharged from a correctional centre until, in the opinion of the medical officer, the discharge can be effected without danger to the health of the inmate.

(3) Where by or under any enactment an inmate becomes entitled to discharge from a correctional centre otherwise than by the expiration of the sentence, the officer in charge shall not discharge the inmate otherwise than in accordance with the terms of the order warrant or instruction issued in writing under the hand of a person authorised to do so under that enactment or in due course of law.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "Director-General" includes a Regional Director.

29. (1) Civil and unconvicted criminal inmates shall be required to keep their cells, precincts of cells, furniture, clothing and utensils clean and perform the classes of labour as the Director-General, with the approval of the Council shall direct.

(2) Appellant inmates shall be required to keep their cells, precincts of cells, furniture, clothing and utensils clean and perform the classes of labour that the Director-General, with the approval of the Council shall direct.

30. (1) A civil or unconvicted criminal inmate may be permitted to maintain himself and to purchase or receive from private source at proper hours, food, clothing or other necessaries, but subject to examination and to such sources and other conditions as the Director-General may direct.

(2) No food, clothing or other necessaries belonging to a civil or unconvicted criminal inmate shall be given, hired, loaned or sold to any other inmate; and any inmate contravening this section shall be liable to lose the privilege of purchasing or receiving food, clothing or other necessaries from private sources for such time as the officer in charge thinks proper.

(3) If a civil or unconvicted criminal inmate does not provide himself with food or clothing, or if the food or clothing is in the opinion of the officer in charge unsatisfactory, the inmate shall receive the regular food and clothing.

31. Male and female inmates shall be confined in separate correctional centres or in separate parts of a correctional centre in such a manner as to prevent, as far as practicable, their seeing or conversing or holding any intercourse with each other.

60. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 29, any habitual criminal sentenced to imprisonment whether by one sentence or consecutive sentences for a period of three years or more who is released under section 29 shall, unless the Council otherwise directs, be subject to a supervision order.

(2) Any supervision order under subsection (1) shall be issued by the Director-General and shall authorize the inmate to be at large in Sierra Leone or in any part of Sierra Leone as shall be specified in the supervision order; and it shall be lawful for the Council to revoke or alter any supervision order at its discretion.

(3) Any supervision order issued under this section shall, unless revoked or forfeited, continue in force for a period not exceeding twelve months and shall then expire.

(4) So long as a supervision order continues in force the inmate shall be subject to the supervision order but shall not be liable to imprisonment by reason of his sentence, but shall be allowed to go and remain at large according to the terms of the supervision order.

(5) Every supervision order shall be in the prescribed form and shall be issued subject to the following conditions:-

- (a) the finger prints of the person subject to the supervision order shall be impressed on the order and a photograph of the person's front and side face shall be affixed.
- (b) the person shall keep the supervision order in his possession and shall at all times produce it on demand, when called upon to do so by a Magistrate or Police Constable or person under whose supervision the person has been placed;

(4) All inmates shall be discharged before noon on the date on which they are entitled to be released; but should that date fall on a Sunday or any public holiday, they shall be released before noon on the day preceding the Sunday or public holiday.

29. (1) Convicted criminal inmates sentenced to imprisonment whether by one or consecutive sentence or sentences for a period exceeding one month, may by industry and good conduct earn a remission of one-third of the remaining period of the sentence or sentences.

(2) For the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of subsection (1), each inmate on admission shall be credited with the full amount of remission to which the inmate would be entitled at the end of the sentence or sentences if the inmate lost or forfeited no remission.

(3) An inmate may lose remission as a result of its forfeiture as a punishment for an offence against correctional centre discipline and shall not earn any remission in respect of any period-

(a) spent in hospital through the inmate's own fault or while maintaining;

(b) while undergoing confinement as a punishment in a separate cell.

(4) On the recommendation of the Director-General, the Council may grant a further remission on special grounds.

(5) The Director-General may restore forfeited remission in whole or in part.

(6) For the purpose of calculating remission of sentence, imprisonment for life shall be deemed to be twenty years imprisonment.

(d) If a person subject to a Supervision Order issued under this Act fails to comply with any of the conditions of the Supervision Order the person shall be guilty of an offence and, in addition to any other penalty incurred in respect of the act constituting the offence, on summary conviction, be liable to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months and the Magistrate by whom the person is convicted may order the Supervision Order to be forfeited.

(7) A constable may arrest without warrant any person whom he reasonably suspects to have committed an offence contrary to this section.

(8) Where a Supervision Order is forfeited or revoked the person whose Supervision Order is forfeited or revoked shall after undergoing any other punishment (if any) to which the person may be sentenced for the offence in consequence of which the Supervision Order is forfeited or revoked, further undergo a term of imprisonment for the outstanding portion of the Supervision Order that remained unexpired at the time the person failed to comply with the conditions of the order or such portion as the Director-General may direct.

(9) If a person subject to a Supervision Order issued under this Act proves to the satisfaction of the person under whose supervision he has been placed, a District officer or a police officer or above the rank of Assistant Superintendent, that he has lost the Supervision Order, the person shall be entitled to a duplicate of the Supervision Order.

(10) Whenever a Supervision Order is revoked by the Director-General, a Magistrate shall, on the production of a certificate of the revocation, issue a warrant, which may be executed in any part of Sierra Leone for the apprehension of the person to whom the Supervision Order was issued, and the person being apprehended shall be brought before the Magistrate, who shall make out a warrant for the commitment of the person to a correctional centre to undergo imprisonment for the outstanding portion of the Supervision Order that remained unexpired at the time the Order was revoked or the portion of the order as the Director-General may direct.

(c) the person subject to a Supervision Order shall abstain from any violation of the law;

(b) the person subject to a Supervision Order shall not habitually associate with notoriously bad characters such as reputed thieves, housebreakers, receivers of stolen property and the like;

(e) the person subject to a Supervision Order shall, at the time of discharge from a correctional centre, inform the officer in charge of the correctional centre of the District and place in which he intends to reside, and shall with all convenient speed proceed to the District and report himself personally to the person under whose supervision he has been placed within forty-eight hours of arrival or so soon after that as is practicable;

(f) the person subject to a Supervision Order shall notify the supervisor of any change of address within the District and shall also inform the supervisor if he intends to leave the District;

(g) on arrival in any new District the person shall report to the person to whom he has been told to report by the person under whose supervision he has been placed, within forty-eight hours of arrival or so soon thereafter as is practicable;

(h) any other conditions which the Director-General may impose:—

(11) Whenever a Supervision Order is forfeited by the Order of a Magistrate under this section, the Magistrate shall make out a warrant for the commitment of the person to undergo the supervision portion of the Supervision Order that remained unexpired at the time the Order was forfeited or a portion as the Director-General may direct.

(12) For the purpose of this section the expression "habitual criminal" means a person who is not less than twenty-five years of age and who

(a) is convicted on an information of an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term of three years or more; or

(b) has been convicted on at least three previous occasions since he attained the age of twenty of offences punishable on an information with such a sentence.

61. (1) The Director-General shall submit to the Council a report on the general condition and conduct of every inmate undergoing imprisonment for life or for a term exceeding four years, at the end of every two years of the imprisonment or a such lesser period as the Council or the Director-General shall consider desirable.

(2) The Council shall appoint a Board whose duty will be from time to time to consider such reports and in each case to tender appropriate advice to the Council.

62. (1) An inmate serving a sentence of imprisonment for a period of four years or more may be allowed by the Director-General within three months of the date the inmate is due for release on conditions and for reasons approved by the Director-General to be temporarily absent from the correctional centre on parole for a stated length of time which shall be greater than fourteen days.

(2) The Director-General or other officer in charge may at any time recall an inmate released on parole.

(3) An inmate who fails to return to a correctional centre on the completion of the period of parole or when informed that he has been recalled under the provisions of subsection (2) commits an offence and may be arrested without warrant and shall be liable on conviction to the same punishment as if he had escaped from a correctional centre.

(4) An inmate who when released on parole contravenes or fails to comply with the conditions imposed upon him commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

PART VIII—OFFENCES BY INMATES

63. (1) The Council shall prescribe what acts or omissions by inmates shall be deemed to be correctional centre offences and shall prescribe which of the offences shall be minor correctional centre offences and which shall be aggravated correctional centre offences.

(2) A charge against an inmate in respect of a correctional centre offence may, subject to this section, be heard and determined

(a) before a subordinate court where the Director-General, owing to the gravity of the correctional centre offence or other sufficient cause, so decides; or

(b) within a correctional centre, by the Director-General or, at the request of the Director-General or a senior corrections officer or the officer in charge, by a visiting justice who is a Magistrate.

- (a) confinement in a separate cell for a period not exceeding three days;
- (b) forfeiture of remission of sentence not exceeding three days of the total remission earned;
- (c) extra work for a period not exceeding three days.

66. Whenever an inmate is charged before an officer in charge who is not a senior officer with a minor correctional centre offence which owing to the circumstances of the case the officer in charge considers the powers of punishment he possesses are inadequate to deal with, the officer shall stay the proceedings and transfer the case with a report on the case to a senior officer or to a visiting justice who is a Magistrate.

67. (1) Where an officer in charge, who is a senior officer or a visiting justice, finds an inmate guilty of a minor correctional centre offence, the officer or justice may impose on the inmate the following punishment:-

- (a) confinement in a separate cell for a period not exceeding fourteen days;
- (b) forfeiture of remission of sentence not exceeding thirty days of the total remission earned;
- (c) extra work for a period not exceeding seven days;
- (b) reduction in stage or postponement of promotion in stage, or forfeiture of privileges

- (3) Rules made under this section shall prescribe the manner in which the offences shall be tried.
- (4) For the purpose of this Part "reduction in stage," means the removal of an inmate to a lower stage in the prescribed progressive stage system.
- 64. (1) An inmate found guilty of a minor correctional centre offence by a lower court shall be liable to-

- (a) imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months;
- (b) additionally or alternatively any one or more of the punishments specified in section 62.

(2) An inmate found guilty of a major correctional centre offence by a subordinate court shall, subject to subsection (3), be liable to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years.

(3) A sentence of imprisonment imposed for a correctional centre offence on an inmate-

- (a) who is a convicted inmate shall commence on the date of the expiry of the sentence of imprisonment being served by the inmate at the time of the offence;
- (b) who is a convicted inmate shall commence on the date the sentence of imprisonment is imposed.

62. Where an officer in charge, who is a junior officer or subordinate officer, finds an inmate guilty of a minor correctional centre offence, the officer may impose one or more of the following punishments:-

of an aggravated correctional centre offence by awarding the inmate an inmate found after due inquiry by the officer in charge to be guilty of an aggravated correctional centre offence by awarding the inmate an administrative officer designated as officer in charge, may punish an officer in charge, if a senior corrections officer, if a senior corrections officer or an administrative officer designated as officer in charge, may punish an inmate found after due inquiry by the officer in charge to be guilty of an aggravated correctional centre offence by awarding the inmate one or more of the following punishments:-

- (a) confinement in a separate cell on the prescribed punishment diet for a term not exceeding the prescribed period;
- (b) forfeiture of remission not exceeding the prescribed period;
- (c) reduction in stage or forfeiture of privilege or postponement of promotion in stage or forfeiture of all or part of earnings or removal from the earnings scheme or reduction in earnings grade for such period as may be prescribed.

(3) No procedure may permit or reduce any inmate to impose punishment on any other inmate; but this restriction shall not prevent appropriate arrangements being made for inmates to be designated to play leadership or mentoring roles in relation to other inmates.

89. (1) The Director-General may punish any inmate found guilty of a correctional offence after an inquiry by a committee set up by the Director-General

(2) An officer in charge on finding an inmate guilty of an aggravated correctional centre offence may, if he is of the opinion that in the circumstances of the case or because of the inmate's character the powers of punishment he possesses are inadequate transfer the case to the Director-General or the visiting Justice for punishment.

(e) forfeiture of earnings not exceeding one-half of the amount earned; or removal from any prescribed earnings scheme for a period not exceeding three months or reduction in earnings grade until such time as the inmate is considered fit for restoration to the original grade by virtue of the inmate's good conduct and skill at his trade or effort at his work; but no inmate shall be reduced from the highest grade in any prescribed earnings scheme without the approval of the Director-General.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "reduction in stage" and "postponement of promotion in stage" mean the removal of an inmate to a lower stage and the postponement of promotion to a higher stage, respectively, in the prescribed progressive stage system.

88. (1) An officer in charge, if he is a senior corrections officer or any administrative officer designated as officer in charge may punish any inmate found after due inquiry by the officer in charge to be guilty of a minor correctional centre offence by awarding the inmate one or more of the following punishments:-

- (a) confinement in a separate cell on the prescribed punishment diet for a term not exceeding the period as may be prescribed;
- (b) forfeiture of remission not exceeding the amount as may be prescribed;
- (c) reduction in stage or forfeiture of privilege or postponement of promotion in stage or forfeiture of all or part of earnings, or removal from the earnings scheme or deduction in earnings grade for the period as may be prescribed.

(3) An officer in charge who transfers a case to the Director-General under subsection (2) shall forward to the Director-General-

- (a) a copy of the charge;
- (b) the record of all the evidence taken including the evidence of the inmate;
- (c) the reasons why the inmate was found to be guilty; and
- (d) any representations the inmate wishes to make to the Director-General in regard to punishment.

(4) The Director-General on receipt of a record forwarded to him under subsection (3) may-

- (a) punish the inmate,
- (b) reverse the findings of the officer in charge and find the inmate not guilty;
- (c) require the officer in charge to take further evidence and submit it to him prior to making a decision; or
- (d) instruct the officer in charge to refer the case to the visiting Justice.

(2) The Director-General may award an inmate one or many of the following punishments:-

- (a) confinement in a separate cell on the prescribed diet for the period;
- (b) forfeiture of remission not exceeding the prescribed amount;

(c) reduction in stage or forfeiture of privilege or postponement of promotion in stage or forfeiture of all or part of earnings or removal from the earnings scheme or reduction in earnings grade for the period prescribed.

70. (1) The Council shall establish a Complaints Committee for each correctional centre with powers to punish any inmate found after due inquiry by it to be guilty of a correctional centre offence awarding the inmate one or more of the following punishments:-

- (a) confinement in a separate cell on the prescribed diet for the prescribed period;
- (b) forfeiture of remission not exceeding the prescribed amount;
- (c) reduction in stage or forfeiture of privilege or postponement of promotion in stage or forfeiture of all or part of earnings or removal from the earnings scheme or reduction in earnings grade for the prescribed period.

(2) The Complaints Committee shall consist of not less than five members and three members shall constitute a quorum.

(3) The Committee shall meet at least once in every three months within the precincts of the correctional centre for which it is appointed and shall-

- (a) hear any complaints which may be made by the inmates detained at the correctional centre, report to the Council any matter which they consider expedient to report,
- (b) inquire into any matter connected with the management of the correctional centre which the Director-General or officer in charge may place before it; or

72. The officer in charge shall cause to be entered in a register to be open to the inspection of the visiting justices and the Complaints Committee a record of all punishments imposed upon inmates showing in respect of each inmate punished, the name, nature of the offence and the extent of the punishment.

PART IX—ESCAPE OF INMATES

76. An inmate who escapes, or attempts to escape, from a place of confinement, or is liable on conviction, for an offence under this Act, shall be liable to imprisonment for a period not exceeding ten years, and to imprisonment for a further period not exceeding ten years, if he was undergoing a sentence of imprisonment for a period of not less than six months, to imprisonment for a further period not exceeding ten years, and to imprisonment for a further period not exceeding twelve months, if he was undergoing a sentence of imprisonment for a period of less than six months, or was an inmate on remand awaiting trial, to imprisonment for a further period not exceeding twelve months.

(a) if he was undergoing a sentence of imprisonment for a period of not less than six months, to imprisonment for a further period not exceeding ten years, and to imprisonment for a further period not exceeding ten years, and

(b) if he was undergoing a sentence of imprisonment for a period of less than six months, to imprisonment for a further period not exceeding two years, and

(c) if he was undergoing a sentence of imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, or was an inmate on remand awaiting trial, to imprisonment for a further period not exceeding twelve months.

77. Any corrections officer who—

(a) aids or abets an inmate in escaping or attempts to escape from custody; or

(b) by gross carelessness, willful neglect of duty or direct disobedience of orders, facilitates the escape of an inmate; or

(c) with intent to facilitate the escape of an inmate, conveys or causes to be conveyed into any correctional centre or other building

(c) into which the Council may direct the Committee to inquire and shall have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed.

(4) One member of the Committee shall visit the correctional centre for which the Committee is appointed at least once a month and any member may at any time enter the correctional centre and shall have free access to every part of the centre and to every person detained in it, and may inspect the correctional records and enter any observations he may think fit to make in reference to the condition of the correctional centre or abuses at the centre in the Visitors' book to be kept by the officer in charge.

(2) No member of any Complaints Committee may in any way be concerned with any contracts for supplies for use in the correctional centre for which the Committee is appointed.

71. Any inmate may be charged before a Magistrate with any offence against correctional centre discipline and the Magistrate may on convicting the inmate award any of the punishments mentioned in section 70 and, in addition or in lieu thereof, may award imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months to run consecutively with the sentence then being served; but no proceedings shall be taken against any inmate in respect of any matter for which the inmate has been punished under this Act.

72. No inmate shall be punished for a correctional centre offence until the inmate has had an opportunity of hearing the charge against him and making a defence.

73. No inmate shall be subject to punishment until certified as medically fit to undergo it by a medical officer or other person appointed for that purpose by the medical officer.

74. Whenever it appears to the officer in charge that it is desirable for the good order and discipline of the correctional centre or an inmate to be segregated and not to work or be located in association with other inmates, it shall be lawful for that officer to order the segregation of the inmate for such period as may be necessary.

82. Any person who is found in possession of an article which has been supplied to a correctional centre officer for use on duty, or who fails to account for its possession, or who without authority purchases or receives such article or property from a correctional officer or who aids or abets a correctional officer to sell or dispose of such article or property, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

83. (1) Any person who by any means directly or indirectly procures or persuades, or attempts to procure or persuade, any corrections officer to desert, or who aids, abets or is an accessory to the desertion of any corrections officer or who, having reason to believe that any person is a deserter, harbours the deserter, or aids him in concealing himself, or assists in his rescue, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one million leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both the fine and imprisonment.

(2) Any person who, directly or indirectly, investigates, commands, counsels, or solicits any military, police or other corrections officer to any lawfully authorised duties, or to any other corrections officer, or maliciously endeavours to reduce any corrections officer from his allegiance or duty, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years.

84. Any person who knowingly harbours in or about his household or otherwise, or who knowingly employs any person under sentence of imprisonment and illegally at large commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years.

85. (1) Any person who commits an offence under this Act or any rules made under the Act, if no penalty is specially provided for the offence, is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one million leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

(2) No person shall be tried twice for the same offence.

in which the officer may for the time being be lawfully confined, any mask, dress, or other disguise, or any letter, tool, or any other article or thing calculated to assist such escape, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding four years.

PART X—OFFENCES IN RELATION TO INMATES

78. Any person who without authority conveys into or throws into or deposits in a correctional centre, or conveys or throws out of a correctional centre, or conveys to an inmate, or deposits in any place with intent that it shall come into the possession of an inmate, any money, clothing, food, drink, drug, tobacco, letter, book, tool or other article whatever commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one million leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

79. Anything conveyed, thrown or deposited in contravention of section 78 may be seized by a corrections officer and the Director-General may order its confiscation and forfeiture.

80. Any person who without authority communicates with an inmate commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one million leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

81. (1) Any person who without lawful authority enters or remains within the boundaries of a correctional centre or any place where inmates are working commits an offence and if he refuses to leave when requested to do so may be arrested by a corrections officer or a police officer.

(2) Any person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand leones or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both the fine and imprisonment.

(2) The Provincial Secretary, the Local Council Chief Administrator, the Police Magistrate a Member of Parliament of the District and all Administrative Officers and Justices of the Peace in any district in which a correctional centre is situated shall be ex officio correctional centre visitors of that correctional centre.

(3) A correctional centre visitor may at any time visit a correctional centre in respect of which he is a correctional centre visitor.

(4) A correctional centre visitor may inspect the sewers, wards, cells, yards, solitary confinement cells, and other apartments and divisions of the correctional centre, inspect and test the quality and quantity of the inmates' food, hear the complaints, if any, of the inmates, and question any inmate, and ascertain so far as possible whether this Act, and the rules made under it, and the correctional centre standing orders are adhered to; and shall call the attention of the corrections officer in charge to any irregularity that may be observed in the working of the correctional centre or in the treatment of any inmate and shall perform other duties as may be prescribed.

89. (1) It shall be lawful for the Council either on its own initiative, or on the recommendation of a Judge of the High Court, or a Magistrate, to grant monetary rewards and gratuities to members of the Service for or in respect of-

- (a) wounds or injuries sustained in service or otherwise in the course of duty;
- (b) special acts of bravery, such as-
 - (i) saving or attempting to save life;
 - (ii) saving or attempting to save property from loss by fire, theft, shipwreck, or in other circumstances attended by danger;
- (c) valuable intelligence acquired by persons risk, hardship, or unusual skill;
- (d) any other special or meritorious service.

PART X-MISCELLANEOUS

86. (1) The Director-General shall cause to be recorded the name or names of the person or persons to whom in the event of the death in a correctional centre of an inmate without having made a valid will, any money or movable property of the inmate within the correctional centre should be paid or delivered.

(2) In the event of an inmate dying while in custody, a report of the death shall be made to the Local Council Chief Administrator of the locality in which any person entitled to any part of the money or property resides, if in the Provinces and the Chief Administrator shall cause to be paid or delivered such money or property to the person or persons nominated by the inmate under subsection (1); but in any case where the Director-General considers that the money and other personal property could be handled more conveniently by the Administrator and Registrar-General, the Director-General shall deliver the money and property to the Administrator and Registrar-General who shall cause the money or property to be paid or delivered to the person or persons nominated by the inmate under subsection (1).

(3) Any person having in his charge or control any property, allowance or other money or personal property belonging to an inmate who dies while in custody, shall pay or deliver them to the Local Council Chief Administrator or the Administrator and Registrar-General, as the case may be, who shall dispose of them in accordance with subsection (2).

87. The Director-General may, from time to time, appoint Ministers or Priests of any religious faith to be correctional centre visitors, who may receive such remuneration or reimbursement of their expenses as may be prescribed.

88. (1) The Council shall, from time to time, appoint by notice in the Gazette fit and proper persons to be correctional centre visitors for each correctional centre.

- (b) the duties and functions of medical officers visiting justices and Correctional Centres Boards, and other persons authorised to undertake official correctional centre visits the payment of allowances and the reimbursement of expenses consistent with any relevant law;
- (c) interviews of inmates by police officers in the course of their investigations, which—
 - (i) may include arrangements for taking inmates to crime scenes and their participation in identification processes;
 - (ii) shall have regard to the constitutional rights of the inmates and the role of the legal practitioners;
- (d) the transfer of inmates and the responsibilities of officers and other persons in relation to the security of inmates when being transferred;
- (e) the use of dogs in maintaining good order and security, and other arrangements for the response to unrest and violence within correctional centres;
- (f) schemes for early release and other appropriate arrangements for the rehabilitation of inmates;
- (g) schemes providing support for inmates after their release, including co-operative arrangements with Non-Governmental Organisations, civil society groups, other relevant ministries, agencies, religious bodies and community-based groups;

- (a) the rights of inmates whilst in custody, including matters related to—
 - (i) communications by post, or other prescribed means;
 - (ii) procedure for complaints and representation to correctional centre authorities, the Human Rights Commission and the Ombudsman;
 - (iii) adequate facilities for the proper preparation of defences and appeals, including access to legal practitioners by correctional centre visits or other communication with appropriate regard to the confidentiality of the solicitor-client relationship and to legal resources;
 - (iv) the rights and special needs of the disabled;
 - (v) the avoidance of discrimination on any grounds; and
 - (vi) the right to practice a religion of choice, including the observance of daily or periodic rituals and practices;
90. Subject to this Act the Council may make rules for any of the purposes of this Act and may in particular make rules relating to—
- (2) All sums of money granted under subsection (1) shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund.
- shall require the sanction of the Minister responsible for finance.
- and any monetary reward or gratuity exceeding one million leones

- (p) the safe custody, management, organization, hours, mode and kind of labour and maintenance, clothing, employment, discipline, treatment, restraint, correction and discharge of inmates;
- (q) the provision of a suitable diet and diet scale for inmates and conditions under which the diet and scale may be varied;
- (r) the construction, description, equipment and supervision of cells and wards;
- (s) the payment of inmates for work done while in correctional centres and the disposal of products of correctional centre labour;
- (t) the establishment of correctional centres, awards and fines fund and the method of administration of such fund by the Director General;
- (u) the establishment of inmates' aid associations and societies in connection with discharge of inmates and the appointment of officers responsible for the aftercare of inmates;
- (v) the medical examination of inmates confined in any correctional centre or otherwise detained in custody, including details of personal statistics and histories, and for recording full and truthful answers to all questions put to those persons with the object of obtaining the statistics and histories;
- (w) the execution of condemned inmates;
- (x) the disposal of inmates' property left

- (h) arrangements for female inmates and their children consistent with the rights and obligations of the Convention for the Elimination of Discrimination against women (CEDAW) and CRC, and in particular the rights of mothers to feed and care for their infant children whilst in correctional centres;
- (i) the encouragement and administration of correctional centre enterprises, educational facilities and skills training programmes;
- (j) reporting, investigating and otherwise dealing with the death of inmates in custody;
- (k) procedures for correctional centre visits and dealing with matters relating to the taking of items, articles and things into correctional centres during visits;
- (l) offences for breach of any regulations, which may provide for the penalties of fines not exceeding one million leones or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both the fine and imprisonment;
- (m) the classification of correctional centres and inmates into categories, and their separation accordingly;
- (n) the duties and responsibilities of corrections officers including the duties and responsibilities of particular classes of the officers;
- (o) the duties of medical and dental officers, the medical inspection of correctional centres and inmates, and the prevention of contagious diseases in correctional centres;

(b) all inmates subject to the repealed Act shall be deemed to be subject to this Act.

(c) all Prisons officers appointed under the repealed Act shall be deemed to have been appointed under this Act and renamed corrections officers and shall be subject in so far as such provisions apply to them, to the provisions of this Act; and

(d) all prisons established under the repealed Act shall be deemed to be correctional centres and shall be renamed correctional centres and established under this Act;

(e) all rules, orders, directions or notices made under that Act shall remain in force until replaced by rules, orders, directions or notices made under this Act;

(f) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Prisons Act;

(1) The Prisons Act, 1960 is repealed.

(2) anything which by this Act may or is to be prescribed, and generally for the effective administration of this Act.

(3) the manner in which the remission of sentences is to be calculated;

(4) the sale and the disposal of the proceeds of the sale; including