Sierra Leone

The Public Procurement Act, 2016.

Short title.

Being an Act to make provision for the continuance in existence of the National Public Procurement Authority, to further regulate and harmonise public procurement processes in the public service, to decentralize public procurement to procuring entities, to promote economic development, including capacity building in the field of public procurement by ensuring value for money in public expenditures and the participation in public procurement by qualified suppliers, contractors, consultants and other qualified providers of goods, works and services and to provide for other related matters.

[] Date of commencement.

ENACTED by the President and Members of Parliament in this present Parliament assembled.

PART I – PRELIMINARY

Application. 1. (1) This Act shall apply to the procurement of goods, works and services, including any procurement financed in whole or in part from public or donor funds by the following bodies or organizations-

(4) The members of the panel referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (12) shall hold office for a term of three years, but may be re-appointed for a further term of three years only.

(5) Where a person is appointed as a member to fill a vacancy he shall hold office for the remainder of the term of the previous member and shall, subjected, to this Act, be eligible for reappointment for another term of three years.

(6) The Panel may engage the services of such consultants and advisers, or co-opt persons with specialized expertise as it may require for the proper and efficient discharge of its functions and such persons shall not have any voting power in decision making.

(7) The Minister shall appoint a secretary to the panel who is suitably experienced and trained in the legal discipline to carry out its administrative work and facilitate the conduct of its business and the Secretary shall attend all the meetings of the panel but shall have no voting rights.

(8) All persons involved in public procurement under this Act, shall when required to do so by the Secretary provide all necessary information and data.

PART IV – GENERAL PROVISIONS ON PROCUREMENT PROCESSES

Qualification of bidders.

21. (1) In order to be awarded a contract, or, if prequalification processes are being held, in order to participate in the procurement processes, a bidder must qualify by meeting the criteria set by the procuring entity, which may include–

- (a) professional and technical qualifications;
- (b) equipment availability;
- (c) past performance;
- (d) after sales service;
- (e) spare parts availability;
- (f) legal capacity;
- (g) financial resources and condition;
- (h) professional records;
- (i) assessment by the National Revenue Authority to ascertain payment of taxes; and
- (j) payment of social security contributions.

(2) The qualification criteria set out under subsection (1) shall be applied by examining, through investigation and collaboration with other Government agencies, whether the bidder does or does not meet the qualification criteria and not by using a point system for comparing the relative level of qualifications of participating bidders.

(3) The procuring entity shall be entitled to demand from potential bidders and applicants for prequalification documentation reflecting their qualification data.

(4) Any requirement established pursuant to this section shall be set forth in the prequalification documents, if any, and in the bidding documents, and shall apply equally to all bidders without discrimination; and only those criteria stated in such documents shall be applied.

(5) A procuring entity may disqualify a bidder if it finds at any time that the information submitted concerning the qualifications of the bidder was materially inaccurate or materially incomplete.

(6) In order to identify persons that are qualified, prior to the invitation of bids, prequalification shall be used for –

- (a) procurement of large complex works in which the cost of bid preparation is high;
- (b) procurement of particularly high value or complexity; and
- (c) groups of similar items bundled together for a consolidated purchase.

(7) When prequalification processes are held, the procuring entity shall–

- (a) provide to all bidders responding to the invitation to prequalify, prequalification documents which shall provide bidders with the information required to enable them prepare and submit their applications for prequalification;

- (b) make available to each applicant the results of the assessment of qualifications and all applicants that meet minimum criteria for prequalification shall be invited to bid.

(8) If prequalification processes are not conducted, post-qualification, in which the procuring entity verifies the qualifications of the bidder selected for award against the criteria stated in the bid documents, shall be used.

(9) Non-registration with a procurement entity by suppliers, contractors or consultants shall be a bar to their participation in public procurement unless the circumstances demand and it is expressly stated in the particular bidding document.

Clarification and modification of bidding and prequalification documents.

22. (1) The procuring entity shall respond within two working days to any request by a bidder for clarification of the bidding documents, or the prequalification documents, submitted to the procuring entity within the time specified in the bidding documents or in the prequalification documents.

(2) Responses to requests for clarification, as well as any modification or any other clarifications of the bidding documents or of the prequalification documents shall be communicated to all bidders participating in the procurement processes without delay, so as to allow bidders an opportunity to take the clarifications or modifications into account in preparing their submissions and if necessary to allow bidders to do so, the procuring entity shall extend the deadline for submission of bids or applications to prequalify.

Rules for description of goods, works and services.

23. (1) To the extent possible, any specifications, plans, drawings, designs and requirements or descriptions of goods, works or services shall be based on the relevant objective technical and quality characteristic, and performance of the goods, works or services to be procured; but there shall be no requirement for or reference to a particular brand, trademark, name, patent, design, type, specific origin or producer unless there is no other sufficiently precise or intelligible way of describing the characteristics of the goods, works or services to be procured and provided that words such as “or equivalent” are included.

(2) Any descriptions of the technical or quality characteristics of the goods, works or services to be procured, and requirements as to testing, packaging, marking, labelling, or conformity certification, or symbols and terminology, that are irrelevant to the performance of the goods or create obstacles to participation by qualified bidders, and thereby limiting competition, shall not be included or used in the prequalification documents, or bidding documents.

24. The procuring entity shall set the deadline for submission of bids, applications for prequalification and expressions of interest so as to allow sufficient time for their preparation and submission, with a view to maximising competition, in accordance with the minimum periods set in sections 39 and 40.

Deadline for bids and other applications.

25. (1) A bid may be rejected only in accordance with this Act and regulations made under it.

Cancellation of processes for rejection of all bids.

(2) A procuring entity may—

- (a) reject all bids at any time prior to the acceptance of a bid;
- (b) cancel the procurement processes where—
 - (i) the procurement need has ceased to exist or changed significantly;
 - (ii) insufficient funding is available for the procurement;
 - (iii) there is a significant change in the required technical details, bidding conditions, conditions of contract or other details, such that the recommendation of processes is necessary;
 - (iv) insufficient, or no responsive bids are received;
 - (v) there is evidence of corruption, fraud, coercion or collusion among bidders; or
 - (vi) cancellation is deemed to be in the interest of national security.

(3) Before rejecting all bids or cancelling any procurement processes, the procurement unit shall prepare a written request for approval of the cancellation for submission to the procurement committee, which shall clearly state—

- (a) detailed reasons for recommending cancellation;
- (b) the status of the procurement processes, including in particular, whether bids have already been opened under bidding methods; and
- (c) whether new procurement processes are recommended and, if so, the modifications recommended.

(4) The reason for rejecting all bids, and for cancelling procurement processes, shall be noted in the record of the procurement processes, and promptly communicated to the bidders.

(5) A procuring entity shall not be liable to a bidder by reason only of rejection of all bids or cancellation of procurement processes under subsection (2).

(6) If a decision to cancel the procurement processes is taken before the deadline for submission of bids, any bid received shall be returned unopened to the bidder.

(7) In the event of cancellation or the rejection of all bids in accordance with subsection (2), the procurement shall not re-bid to the same specifications and contract conditions unless the cancellation of the initial proceeding is for budgetary or other reasons unrelated to the specifications and contract conditions, but if the procurement is to be repeated, the reasons for the cancellation of the initial proceeding shall be examined and the technical specification or contract conditions, or both may be suitably modified prior to re-bidding.

Public notice
awards.

26. The procuring entity shall promptly publish in the Gazette and any newspaper of wide national circulation notice of each contract award in which the price of the contract exceeds the threshold set in the First Schedule, indicating the contract price and the name and address of the successful bidder.

27. The procuring entity shall soon after a successful bidder has been identified, inform the unsuccessful bidder(s) of the reason for which their respective bids were unsuccessful.

Debriefing of
bidders.

28. (1) Subject to this Act, documents, notifications, decisions and other communication referred to in this Act to be submitted by the procuring entity to a bidder or by a bidder to the procuring entity, shall be in writing

cation.

(2) The Authority may authorise procuring entities to use other forms of communication, including electronic communication, for publication of invitations to bid, transmission of bidding documents, submission of bids, conclusion of contracts, and payment but any such other means of communication shall be such as can preserve a record of the content of the communication, provide an adequate level of security, and does not unduly restrict bidders' access to the procurement processes and is not inconsistent with this Act or any regulation made under it.

29. (1) All procuring entities shall undertake procurement planning, with a view to achieving maximum value for public expenditures and the other objects of this Act.

Procurement planning.

(2) The procurement plan to support the procuring entity's approved programme and budget shall indicate—

- (a) contract packages,
- (b) estimated cost of each package,
- (c) the procurement method, and
- (d) processing steps and times.

(3) A procuring entity shall not divide a procurement order into parts or lower the value of a procurement order to avoid the application of the procedures for public procurement prescribed in this Act.

(4) Where a requirement is divided into lots, which may result in separate contracts, the selection of procurement method shall be determined by the estimated total value of all lots.

(5) In accordance with the budget preparation procedures issued by the Ministry, all procuring entities shall submit their annual procurement plans for the coming financial year to the Ministry and the Ministry responsible for local government (for local councils) for review and approval.

(6) Procuring entities shall, where necessary and on a quarterly basis, review and update their procurement plans and notify the Ministry and the Ministry responsible for local government (for local councils) of any modifications to the approved and updated plans for publication in accordance with paragraph (i) of subsection (2) of section 14.

Contract administration responsibility.

30. The procuring entity shall be responsible for the administration of contracts into which it enters, as well as the monitoring of the performance of such contracts.

Price adjustment.

31. (1) Price adjustment shall not be permitted unless provided for in the procurement contract to take into account changes in economic circumstances.

(2) If the procurement contract provides for the possibility of price adjustment, it shall stipulate the conditions, such as increases or decreases in the cost of materials, labour, transportation and energy, in which price adjustment would be permitted; the formulas, and indices to be referred to in order to determine whether economic conditions have altered to a significant enough degree to justify a price adjustment and to identify the amount of increase or decrease; the frequency with which price adjustments may be implemented; and procedures to be followed.

(3) The procurement contract may provide that, when the application of price adjustment leads to a modification exceeding a stipulated percentage of the initial price or a stipulated percentage of the balance of the contract, the procuring entity may terminate the contract.

(4) Any price variation shall be subject to approval by the respective procurement committee.

32. (1) The procuring entity shall preserve all documentation relating to the procurement processes in accordance with applicable rules concerning archiving of government documentation, but at a minimum for a period of six years following the date of final completion of the procurement contract, or from the date of rejection of all bids or cancellation of the proceeding, as the case may be.

Records and reports of procurement processes.

(2) In addition to the documentation referred to in subsection (1), the procuring entity shall prepare and maintain a summary report of the procurement processes, including to the extent applicable –

- (a) a description of the object of the procurement;
- (b) a list of the participating bidders, their profile and qualifications, and the qualification criteria applied;
- (c) bid prices;
- (d) the bid evaluation criteria;
- (e) a summary of the evaluation of bids;
- (f) summary of any review processes and decisions thereon;
- (g) requests for clarifications, and responses thereto;
- (h) statement of grounds for cancellation of procurement processes pursuant to section 25;
- (i) statement of grounds for choice of a procurement method other than open bidding or request for proposals for services;
- (j) statement of grounds for reduction of bid preparation periods;
- (k) information concerning rejection of bids;
- (l) such other information as may be required by the regulations made under this Act.

(3) The portion of the record referred to in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (g) of subsection (2) shall, on request, be made available to any person after a bid, proposal, offer or quotation has been accepted or after procurement processes have been terminated without resulting in a procurement contract.

(4) The portion of the record referred to in paragraphs (e), (h) and (i) of subsection (2) shall, on request, be made available to suppliers, contractors or consultants that submitted bids, proposals, offers or quotations, or applied for pre-qualification, after a bid, proposal, offer or quotation has been accepted or procurement processes have been terminated without resulting in a procurement contract.

(5) The procuring entity shall not disclose—

- (a) information, if its disclosure will—
 - (i) be contrary to law,
 - (ii) impede law enforcement,
 - (iii) not be in the public interest,
 - (iv) prejudice legitimate commercial interests of the parties, or
 - (v) inhibit fair competition under this Act;
- (b) information relating to the examination, evaluation and comparison of bids, proposals, offers or quotations, other than the summary referred to in paragraph (e) of subsection (2).

(6) Records and documents maintained by procuring entities on procurement shall be made available for inspection by the Authority, Anti-Corruption Commission and Auditor-General upon request; and where donor funds have been utilised for the procurement, donor officials shall also have access, upon request, to procurement files for the purpose of audit and review.

Conduct of
officials.

33. (1) Any public officer involved in requisitioning, planning, preparing and conducting procurement processes and administering the implementation of contracts, shall —

- (a) discharge his duties impartially so as to assure fair competitive access to public procurement by bidders;
- (b) always act in the public interest, and in accordance with the object and procedures set out in this Act and regulations made under it.;
- (c) at all times avoid conflicts of interest, and the appearance of conflicts of interest, in carrying out his duties and in all his conduct.
- (d) not commit or abet corrupt or fraudulent practices, coercion or collusion, including the solicitation or acceptance of any inducements;
- (e) keep confidential the information that comes into his or her possession relating to procurement processes and to bids, including bidders' proprietary information;
- (f) not take up a position of authority in any private concern with which he undertook procurement activities for a period of three years after departure from the procuring entity.

(2) Public officer of a procuring entity, or their close relatives, shall not participate as bidders in the procurement processes of the procuring entity.

(3) A public officer shall declare his interest, (direct or indirect) in writing and in such form as the Authority may prescribe and excuse himself from any participation in the procurement process in which there has been a declaration.

(4) A public officer shall excuse himself under subsection (3) immediately after he becomes aware of the potential conflict; and the requirement to excuse himself shall extend to the administration and management of any procurement contract awarded and such declarations by public officers shall be made to their supervisors and in the case of a committee member to the Chairman or secretary of the committee.

(5) All public officers and other persons involved in public procurement shall, in accordance with this Act and other applicable legislation–

- (a) provide full cooperation and disclosure to the Authority, the National Revenue Authority, Auditor-General, and other authorities exercising monitoring and supervisory jurisdiction over public procurement pursuant to the laws of Sierra Leone;
- (b) not later than thirty days from assuming responsibility and thirty days after leaving office, make a declaration of their assets and liabilities in such form as the Anti-Corruption Commission may determine; the declaration shall be updated annually as well as whenever there is a substantial change in assets and liabilities.

(6) Public officers who contravene this Act or any regulation made under it shall be liable to applicable administrative and civil sanctions as well as to prosecution pursuant to applicable criminal laws, including the Anti-Corruption Act, 2008.

Conduct of bidders and suppliers.

34. (1) Bidders and suppliers shall at all times abide by their obligations under this Act, the regulations, contracts, and other instruments applicable to their conduct and activities related to procurement.

(2) A bidder or a supplier, shall not engage in or abet corrupt or fraudulent practices, including the offering or giving, directly or indirectly, of any inducement, the misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract, or interference in the ability of competing bidders to participate in procurement processes.

(3) Bidders shall not engage in any activity, prior to or after bid submission, designed to deprive the procuring entity of the benefits of free and open competition, including, but not restricted to, collusion over bidding for opportunities and price fixing, and coercive, corrupt or fraudulent practices.

(4) A procuring entity shall reject a bid if the bidder offers, gives or agrees to give an inducement referred to subsection (2) and promptly notify the rejection to the bidder concerned, the Authority, and to the relevant law enforcement authorities.

(5) The procuring entity shall not award a contract to a bidder who is responsible for preparing the specifications or bidding documents for the contract or supervising the execution of a contract, or to any affiliate of such a bidder; but this subsection shall not apply to the various firms (consultants, contractors or suppliers) which together are performing the supplier's obligations under a turnkey or design and build contract.

(6) Any bidder or supplier who is engaged in any fraudulent, corrupt or coercive practice in connection with public procurement commits an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not less than 10 % of the value of the contract or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

35. (1) The Authority may exclude a bidder or a supplier from participation in public procurement for a minimum period of one year and a maximum period of six years after –

Debarment of bidders and suppliers.

- (a) consultation with the affected procuring entity to consider all the facts of the case;
- (b) reasonable notice to the bidder or supplier involved of the cause of the proposed actions; and
- (c) reasonable opportunity for the bidder or supplier to respond to the proposed action.

(2) A potential bidder or supplier shall not be debarred from participation in procurement except on the following grounds–

- (a) provision of false information supplied in the process of submitting a bid;
- (b) collusion between the bidder and another bidder or a bidder and a public officer concerning the formulation of any part of the bidding documents;

- (c) connivance to interfere with the participation of competing bidders;
- (d) misconduct relating to the submission of bids, including corruption, collusion, price fixing, a pattern of under-pricing of bids, breach of confidentiality, and any other misconduct referred to in section 34;
- (e) non-performance of contractual obligations under a contract deemed serious enough to warrant debarment, provided that the non-performance was not due to circumstances beyond the control of the supplier;
- (f) conviction of a criminal offence relating to obtaining or attempting to obtain a contract or subcontract;
- (g) non-settlement of tax obligations after assessment by the National Revenue Authority or the evasion of tax by any means; or
- (h) conviction of a crime related to business or professional activities.

(3) The Ministry shall effect debarment of a bidder or a supplier excluded by the Authority under subsection (1), by not releasing funds to pay on any contract entered into between a procuring entity and the debarred bidder or supplier.

Margin of preference.

36. (1) A procuring entity may grant a margin of preference for the benefit of bids for work by domestic contractors or for the benefit of bids for domestically produced goods or for the benefit of domestic suppliers of services;

(2) The margin of preference shall be calculated in accordance with the regulations and reflected in the record of the procurement processes;

(3) The margin of preference shall be authorised by the Authority and shall be subject to approval by the Authority.

PART V—METHODS OF PROCUREMENT

37. (1) Public procurement shall be undertaken by means of advertised open bid processes, to which equal access shall be provided to all eligible and qualified bidders without discrimination, subject only to the exceptions provided in sections 38, 39, 40 and 41. Choice of procurement method.

(2) Procurement shall not be divided artificially with the intention of avoiding the monetary thresholds established under to this Act or regulations made under it.

(3) If the procuring entity uses a method of procurement other than advertised open bidding or, in the case of procurement of consultant services, a method other than request for proposals, it shall note in the record of the procurement processes the grounds for the choice of the procurement method.

(4) When the participation of the procurement end-user or beneficiary community may result in enhancing the economy, quality or sustainability of the service to be procured, or the very objective of the project is to create employment and involvement of the beneficiary community, such end-user or community may participate in the delivery of services under procedures to be defined in the regulations.

(5) In the cases referred to in subsection (4), procurement may be carried out by force account, in which the procurement is carried out with self-supervision, utilising the procuring entity's own personnel and equipment or those of another government institution.

(6) The cases in which force account may be utilised include, separately or in combination with any activity—

- (a) that, in view of its size, nature, location or scattered locations (with no local suppliers available), financing or high demobilization costs for outside suppliers, does not attract bidders, at least not at a reasonable price;

- (b) that cannot be calculated, or determined in detail in advance or both, such that, if it were carried out by a supplier, contractor, or consultant, it would have to bear a large risk;
- (c) where the risk of unavoidable work interruptions is better borne by the procuring entity than by a supplier or contractor;
- (d) where it has been demonstrated that force account is the only practical method for constructing and maintaining works under special circumstances;
- (e) for a pilot project of a particular nature for development of a technology or work method or both that cannot yet be carried out by a supplier; and
- (f) for works that must be carried out without disrupting existing operations by the procuring entity's crew familiar with those operations.

(7) Where any procurement of goods, sub-contracted works or services is required to supplement the force account activity, that procurement shall be carried out in accordance with the appropriate provisions of this Act.

Open competitive bidding.

38. (1) The open bid processes may include a prequalification stage or apply a post qualification procedure prior to the award of contract.

(2) The open bid may be carried out in a single stage or in two stages, but the use of the two-stage method shall be used in the circumstances specified in subsection (3).

(3) An open bid may be held in two stages in the following cases—

- (a) when it is not feasible to define fully the technical or contractual aspects of the procurement to elicit competitive bids; and
- (b) when, because of the complex nature of the goods, works or services to be procured, the procuring entity wishes to consider various technical or contractual solutions, and to discuss with bidders about the relative merits of those variants before deciding on the final technical or contractual specifications.

39. (1) In procurement processes in which the procuring entity decides that only domestic suppliers or contractors are likely to be interested in submitting bids, the procuring entity may employ national competitive bidding procedures. National competitive bidding.

(2) The procuring entity shall not be required to employ national competitive bidding procedures if the estimated contract amount is lower than the value threshold specified in the First Schedule.

(3) The procuring entity may stipulate in the bidding documents that bidders must quote only in the local currency and payments shall be made wholly in the local currency.

(4) At least four weeks shall be allowed for submission of tenders in order to allow sufficient time for the invitation to reach candidates and to enable them to prepare and submit the bids as provided in section 24.

40. (1) The procuring entity shall employ international competitive bidding procedures when the estimated contract amount is higher than the value threshold specified in the First Schedule. International competitive bidding..

(2) International competitive bidding may be used whenever open competitive bidding is used and effective competition cannot be obtained unless foreign firms are invited to bid or where the goods, works or services are not available under competitive price and other conditions from three or more suppliers in Sierra Leone.

(3) International competitive bidding shall be in accordance with the appropriate procedures prescribed in this Act together with the following;–

- (a) the invitation to bid and bidding documents shall be in English;
- (b) the invitation to bid shall also be published in a newspaper of wide international circulation, in a relevant trade publication or technical or professional journal of wide international circulation.;
- (c) at least six weeks shall be allowed for submission of bids in order to allow sufficient time for the invitation to reach candidates and to enable them to prepare and submit the tenders as provided in section 23;
- (d) technical specifications shall, to the extent compatible with national requirements, be based on international standards or standards widely used in international trade and in particular shall conform to the provisions of section 23;
- (e) bidders shall be permitted to express their bids, as well as any security documents to be presented by them, in their respective domestic currencies, or in a currency widely used in international trade and stated in the bidding documents;
- (f) general and special conditions of contract shall be of a kind generally used in international trade.

Restricted bidding.

41. (1) Subject to approval by the Procurement Committee, restricted bidding may be held in the following cases:–

- (a) when the goods, works or services are only available from a limited number of bidders;
- (b) when the time and cost of considering a large number of bids is disproportionate to the estimated value of the procurement.

42. (1) When restricted bidding is employed on the grounds referred to in paragraph (a) of section 41, all known suppliers capable of supplying the goods, works or services shall be invited to bid. Procedures for restricted bidding.

(2) When restricted bidding is employed on the grounds referred to in paragraph (b) of section 41, the procuring entity shall solicit bids from a minimum number of five bidders, if possible.

(3) The procedures for bidding processes, as set forth in Part V, shall apply to restricted bidding, except to the extent that they are modified by this section.

43. Request for proposals for services is the method to be used for the procurement of consultant services, subject only to the exceptions specified in section 46. Request for proposals.

44. The request for quotations method may be used for the procurement of goods and works– Request for quotations.

- (a) where the procurement is for readily available commercially standard goods, not specially manufactured to the particular specifications of the procuring entity and the estimated value does not exceed the amount set in the First Schedule;
- (b) when the estimated value of the procurement of small works, does not exceed the amount set in the First Schedule;
- (c) when the estimated value of the procurement of services does not exceed the amount set in the First Schedule.

45. (1) Quotations shall be requested in writing from as many bidders as practicable, but from at least three bidders. Basic procedures for request for quotation.

(2) The request shall contain a clear statement of the requirements of the procuring entity as to quality, quantity, terms and time of delivery, as well as any other special requirements.

(3) Bidders shall be given adequate time to prepare and submit their quotations, but each bidder shall be permitted one quotation, which may not be altered or negotiated.

(4) A purchase order shall be placed with the bidder that provided the lowest-priced quotation meeting the delivery and other requirements of the procuring entity.

Sole-source. 46. (1) Public procurement by means of the sole-source procurement method shall be permitted only in the following circumstances-

- (a) when only one supplier has the exclusive right to realise manufacture of the goods, carry out the works, or perform the services to be procured and no suitable alternative is available;
- (b) for additional deliveries of goods by the original supplier which are intended either as part replacement for existing goods, services or installations, or as the extension of existing goods, services or installations where a change of supplier would compel the procuring entity to procure equipment or services not meeting requirements of interchangeability with already existing equipment or services;
- (c) when additional works, which were not included in the initial contract have, through unforeseeable circumstances, become necessary and the separation of the additional works or services from the initial contract would be difficult for technical or economic reasons;
- (d) in cases of extreme urgency, provided the circumstances which gave rise to the urgency were neither foreseeable by the procuring entity nor the result of dilatory conduct on its part;

- (e) when the services require that a particular consultant be selected due to his unique qualifications, or when it is indispensable to continue with the same consultant.

(2) Use of sole-source procurement on the grounds referred to in paragraphs of section (1) shall be subject to prior approval by the Procurement Committee.

47. (1) When the procuring entity engages in sole-source procurement on the grounds referred to in subsection (1), it shall prepare a written description of its needs and any special requirements as to quality, quantity, terms and time of delivery; and shall request submission of a bid or proposal in writing or both and shall be free to negotiate with the sole bidder.

Basic procedures for sole-source procurement.

(2) Publication in the Gazette, a newspaper of national circulation and, when feasible on the internet, of a notice of the holding of sole-source procurement processes is required when the estimated value of the procurement exceeds the threshold set in First Schedule.

PART VI-BIDDING PROCEDURES

48. (1) An invitation to bid, or an invitation to prequalify, shall be published in the Gazette, national print media of wide circulation and electronic media.

Invitation to bid.

(2) Every invitation to bid or to apply for prequalification published under subsection (1), shall run for the period of time prescribed in subsection (4) of section 39 and paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of section 40.

(3) A procuring entity may limit participation on the basis of nationality in accordance with the regulations and shall include in the record of the procurement proceedings a statement of the grounds and circumstances on which it relied.

(4) Tenders shall be formulated and submitted in English and except where the Authority otherwise determines or the specific instruction in a bidding package or a Tender Notice so requires, English shall be the official language of all communications.

(5) Supporting documents and printed literature furnished by a bidder may be in another language if they are accompanied by an accurate translation of the relevant passages in English.

(6) Translations may be used to interpret a bid.

(7) In an international bid, in which the participation of foreign bidders is invited, an invitation to bid or an invitation to prequalify in accordance with section 21 shall be published in English and where—

- (a) the estimated value of the procurement exceeds the thresholds set in the First Schedule; or
- (b) there is no response to a national bidding proceeding, the bidding and contract documents shall also be made in English.

(8) The invitation to bid or to prequalify, as the case may be, shall include information on—

- (a) the identity and address of the procuring entity;
- (b) the nature and time-frame of the procurement, including the place of delivery of goods or services, and the location of any works;
- (c) the manner of obtaining and the price of the bidding documents, or, if applicable, the prequalification documents;
- (d) the place and deadline for submission of bids, or of applications to prequalify;
- (e) such other matters as the Authority may by statutory instrument prescribe.

Bidding documents.

49. (1) A procuring entity shall use the appropriate standard bidding documents specified in the second Schedule.

Provided that in exceptional circumstances, the Authority may, on an application by a procuring entity, approve in writing, the usage of other formats or variations to the standard bidding documents.

(2) A procuring entity shall provide, in an expeditious and non-discriminatory manner, the bidding documents to all potential bidders that respond to the invitation to bid or, in the case of prequalification, to all bidders that have been prequalified, and the price that may be charged for the bidding documents shall reflect only the cost of printing and distributing the documents.

(3) The bidding documents shall inform bidders of—

- (a) the nature and time frame of the procurement, including, but not limited to the technical specifications or drawings as the case may be, terms of reference, the contractual terms of the procurement, and the manner of entry into force of the contract;
- (b) bidder qualification requirements if a prequalification procedure was not followed;
- (c) information as to site visits and pre-bid conferences;
- (d) instructions for preparation and submission of bids, including the deadline for submission of bids, time and place of bid opening;
- (e) components to be reflected in the price, the currency or currencies in which the bid price may be stated, and the currency and related exchange rate to be used for comparison of bids;
- (f) the criteria and methodology for evaluation of bids and the selection of the successful bidder, which shall all be quantified in monetary terms or expressed in the form of pass or fail requirements, if possible, or, where not possible, by relative weights and when considering evaluation criteria, the procuring entity shall consider only the following -
 - (i) the bid price, subject to any margin of preference applied pursuant to section 36;

- (ii) the cost of operating, maintaining and repairing the goods or works, the time for delivery of the goods, completion of works or provision of the services, the functional characteristics of the goods or works, the terms of payment and of guarantees in respect of the goods, works or services;
- (iii) the effect that acceptance of a bid would have on the environment, the extent of local content, including local manufacture, labour and materials, in goods, works or services being offered by bidders, the transfer of technology and the development of managerial, scientific and operational skills;
- (g) the preference, if any, for domestic goods and contractors as the Authority may by statutory instrument prescribe.
- (h) any grouping of goods, works or services into lots and packages and the manner of evaluation of the lots and packages;
- (i) whether alternatives to the technical or contractual specifications would be considered and, if so, how those alternatives would be evaluated;
- (j) if suppliers are permitted to submit bids for only a portion of the goods, works or services to be procured, a description of the portion or portions for which bids may be submitted;
- (k) the required validity period of bids;
- (l) the amount and acceptable forms of any required bid, performance or other security;
- (m) the conditions of contract which will be entered into with the successful bidder;
- (n) notice of conflict-of-interest restrictions and anti-fraud and corruption rules;
- (o) the manner in which bidders may obtain review of actions, omissions and decisions of the procuring entity; and,

- (p) such other matters as the Authority may by statutory instrument prescribe.

50. (1) Subject to subsection (2) of section 28, a bid shall not be accepted unless submitted in writing, duly signed, in a sealed envelope within the deadline for submission of bids and any bid received after the deadline for submission of bids shall be returned unopened. Submission of bids.

(2) Invitation for bidding and prequalification documents shall permit submission of applications to bid or prequalify by hand or mail or by courier at the option of the bidder.

(3) The Authority may by statutory instrument prescribe—

- (a) other methods of submission of bids, such as by electronic mail;
- (b) rules for the protection of the confidentiality and security of bids, including the prevention of the opening and reading of bids by anyone until the time set in accordance with paragraph (d) of subsection (3) of section 49.

(4) Bids shall remain valid for the period of time indicated in the bidding documents, but modification or withdrawal of a bid during the bid validity period is subject to forfeiture of the bid security.

(5) The validity period of a bid may be deemed extended only on the basis of the agreement of the bidder concerned and bidder that agrees to an extension of the validity period of its bid shall also obtain a corresponding extension of the bid security, if such a security was required.

51. (1) The bidding documents may require every bidder to submit a bid security, which shall be on such terms and conditions as the Authority may by statutory instrument prescribe. Bid security.

(2) Forfeiture of a bid security may be imposed only in the event of—

- (a) a modification or withdrawal of a bid after the deadline for submission of bids and during its period of validity;
- (b) refusal by a bidder to accept a correction of an arithmetical error appearing on the face of the bid;
- (c) failure by the successful bidder to sign a contract in accordance with the terms set forth in the bidding documents; or
- (d) failure by the successful bidder to provide a security for the performance of the contract if required to do so by the bidding documents.

Bid opening.

52. (1) Bids shall be opened at the time and place indicated in the bidding documents, and the time of bid opening shall coincide with the deadline for submission of bids, or follow immediately thereafter, allowing a minimum time interval for logistical reasons.

(2) Bidders or their representatives may attend the bid opening, where the name of the bidder, the total amount of each bid, any discounts or alternatives offered, and the presence or absence of any bid security, if required, and essential supporting documents shall be read out loud and recorded, and a copy of the record shall be made available to any bidder on request; and any documents with financial implications must be signed by the Chairman and two other members of the bid opening committee.

(3) No decision regarding the disqualification or rejection of any bid shall be taken or announced in the bid opening session.

(4) Following opening of the bids, and until the preliminary decision on award has been notified to the successful bidder, no bidder shall make any unsolicited communication to the procuring entity or try in any way to influence the procuring entity's examination and evaluation of the bids.

Examination
evaluation
and comparison of bids.

53. (1) Following the opening of bids, the procuring entity shall first examine the bids in order to determine whether the bids are complete, signed, whether required documents to establish legal validity and required bid security have been furnished and whether bids are substantially responsive to the technical specification and contract conditions set forth in the bidding documents.

(2) Bids which are not complete, not signed, not accompanied by a bid security in the prescribed form, if one is required, or not accompanied by essential supporting documents such as business registration certificates, business licences and tax receipts, or are substantially non-responsive to the technical specifications or contract conditions or other critical requirements in the bidding documents, shall be rejected and excluded from further evaluation and comparison.

(3) The Authority may by statutory instrument prescribe—

- (a) other methods of submission of bids, such as by electronic mail;
- (b) protecting the confidentiality and security of bids, including the prevention of the opening and reading of bids by anyone until the time set in accordance with paragraph (d) of subsection (3) of section 49.

(4) Bids not excluded from consideration under subsections (2) and (3), shall be evaluated taking into account those factors explicitly stated in the bidding document.

(5) The procuring entity may seek clarification from any bidder to facilitate evaluation but shall neither ask nor permit any bidder to change the price or any other aspect of the bid and if a bidder amends its bid in any manner, that bid will be rejected and its bid security forfeited.

(6) Where there is an arithmetical error, the error shall be rectified and the bidder notified but if the bidder refuses to accept such correction, its bid shall be rejected and the bid security forfeited.

(7) Where there is a discrepancy between figures and words, the amount in words shall prevail unless the discrepancy is due to misplacement of decimal point, in which case the mistake shall be rectified and the bidder notified.

(8) In carrying out the evaluation, if there are minor deviations in any bid which did not merit rejection at the earlier stage, such minor variation shall be costed, if possible, and the evaluated cost of the bid shall then be compared to those of other bids to determine the lowest evaluated bid.

(9) Where the process included a prequalification, the qualifications of the lowest evaluated bidder shall be verified again to take account of any change since the original prequalification.

(10) Where there was no prequalification, the qualifications of the lowest evaluated substantially responsive bidder shall be checked against the criteria specified in the bidding documents; if that bid fails, the same check shall be applied to the next ranked bid.

(11) The procuring entity shall prepare an evaluation report detailing the examination and evaluation of bids and identifying the recommendation for award of contract in accordance with the evaluation criteria specified in the bidding document.

Non-disclosure of bid evaluation details.

54. Information relating to the examination, clarification, evaluation and comparison of bids shall not be disclosed to suppliers or contractors or to any other person not involved officially in the examination, evaluation or comparison of bids or in the decision on which bid should be accepted, except as provided in subsections (3) and (4) of section 32.

Prohibition of negotiation.

55. (1) No negotiation shall take place between the procuring entity and the supplier or contractor with respect to a bid submitted by the supplier or contractor.

(2) Where the lowest evaluated responsive bid exceeds the budget for the contract by a substantial margin, the procuring entity shall investigate the causes for the excessive cost and may request new bids.

Award of contract.

56. (1) The contract shall be awarded to the bidder having submitted the lowest evaluated and substantially responsive bid which meets only those evaluation criteria as specified in the bidding documents.

(2) Prior to the expiry of the period of bid validity, the procuring entity shall notify the successful bidder of the proposed award, which shall specify the time within which the contract must be signed, subject to any intervening complaints filed in accordance with Part VI.

(3) Notice of award shall be given to other bidders at the same time the successful bidder is notified, specifying the name and address of the proposed bidder and the price of the contract, but the contract shall not be signed until at least 14 calendar days have passed following the giving of that notice.

(4) Where a bidder whose bid has been accepted fails to sign a written contract, when required to do so, or fails to provide any required security for the performance of the contract within the prescribed time limit, the procuring entity shall accept the next ranked bidder from among the remaining bids that are in force, but in selecting the next ranked bidder, the procuring entity shall comply with provisions of section 52 as appropriate.

(5) Any person who signs or enters into a procurement contract on behalf of a procuring entity where there is a pending complaint and in contravention of this subsection commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10 % of the value of the contract or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

57. (1) Where the bidding documents require the supplier or contractor whose bid has been accepted to sign a written procurement contract conforming to the bid, the procuring entity and the supplier shall sign the procurement contract within 30 days after the notice referred to in subsection (2) of section 56 has been dispatched to the supplier or contractor.

Acceptance of bid and signature of contract.

(2) Where a written procurement contract is required to be signed, the procurement contract shall enter into force when the contract is signed by the supplier or contractor and by the procuring entity.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (2) of section 56, a procurement contract in accordance with the terms and conditions of the accepted bid shall enter into force when the notice is dispatched to the supplier or contractor that submitted the bid while the bid is in force.

(4) Contracts shall be signed by the head of a procuring entity, but he may delegate signature of small contracts to the head of procurement unit or other senior official of the entity.

(5) Any contracts entered into between a procuring entity and a successful bidder shall be valid only if it contains an express provision allowing cancellation of the contract by the Panel if the panel finds a contravention of any provision of this Act or any regulation, document or process relating to the procurement.

Two-stage bidding.

58. (1) Where a procurement is to be done by a two-stage bidding, the bidding documents shall, in the first stage, require bidders to submit initial bids without a bid price, and may solicit initial proposals relating to the technical, quality or other characteristics of the goods, works or services, as well as to contractual terms and conditions of the proposed contract, and, where relevant, the professional and technical competence and qualifications of the bidders.

(2) The procuring entity may engage in discussion with any or all bidders whose proposals satisfy the conditions set forth in the bidding documents with a view to understanding the proposals or to indicate changes required to make them acceptable and to seek the bidder's willingness to make such changes and the minutes of these discussions shall form part of the procurement records.

(3) At the end of the first stage, the procuring entity may—

- (a) reject those bids which do not, and cannot be changed to meet the basic requirements, minimum performance, or required completion time or have any other weakness which makes the bid substantially non responsive;

- (b) modify the technical specifications, evaluation criteria, and contract conditions, while seeking to maximise competition and articulate appropriate evaluation methodology.

(4) In the second stage, the procuring entity shall invite bidders whose bids have not been rejected to submit final bids with prices responsive to the revised bidding documents.

(5) A bidder, not wishing to submit a final bid, may withdraw from the bidding processes without forfeiting any bid security that the bidder may have been required to provide, and the final bids shall be evaluated and compared in accordance with the criteria and methodology included in the revised bidding documents.

(6) The procedures for bidding specified in section 57 shall apply to two-stage bidding processes, except to the extent they are modified by this section.

59. (1) For the purposes of procuring the services of a consultant, the procuring entity shall prepare a shortlist of three to six consulting firms, to the greatest extent feasible, comprising consultants of the same category, and similar capacity and business objectives, to which it shall provide the request for proposals for services; and the short-list shall be established from among those who have capacity to perform the required services, as demonstrated in their submissions.

Request for consultant's services.

(2) When the estimated value of the procurement exceeds the threshold set out in the First Schedule, in order to establish the shortlist, the procuring entity shall seek expressions of interest by publishing a notice in the Gazette, in a national print media of wide circulation, and whenever feasible, on the internet, and where appropriate, the notice may also be published in a relevant trade publication or technical or professional journal.

(3) For assignments of a value lower than the threshold set out in the First Schedule, the shortlist may be established from market knowledge, or other sources of information but in the case of assignments which have an estimated value above that threshold, or are particularly complex, an advertisement shall also be utilised.

(4) The request for proposals shall provide short listed bidders with the information necessary to enable them to participate in the procurement processes and to submit proposals that are responsive to the needs of the procuring entity including, in particular:

- (a) the name and address of the procuring entity;
- (b) the nature, time frame and location of the services to be provided, terms of reference, required tasks and outputs;
- (c) the criteria to be used in evaluating and comparing proposals, and their relative weight as compared to price;
- (d) the contractual terms of the procurement, and the manner of entry into force of the contract;
- (e) instructions for preparation and submission of proposals, and the place and deadline for submission of proposals;
- (f) the final selection procedures to be applied;
- (g) notice of conflict-of-interest restrictions and anti-fraud and corruption rules, including the grounds for potential debarment from future participation in procurement of goods, services or works that may result from the assignment under consideration; and
- (h) such other matters as may be prescribed in the regulations and standard documents issued by the Authority.

(6) The price of a proposal shall be considered by the procuring entity only after completion of the technical evaluation.

60. (1) The selection of the successful proposal shall be based either— Selection based on quality and cost.

- (a) on the technical quality of the proposal, the consultant's relevant experience and the expertise of its staff, and the proposed work methodology, as well as the price of the proposal;
- (b) on the quality of the technical proposal submitted within a predetermined fixed budget; or
- (c) on the basis of the best financial proposal submitted by the candidates, having obtained an acceptable technical score pre-disclosed in the request for proposals.

(2) Detailed procedures shall be set out in the regulations.

61. When the services are of an exceptionally complex nature of a considerable impact on future projects or national economy or when they may lead to the submission of proposals which are difficult to compare, the consultant may, subject to the approval of the procurement committee, be selected exclusively on the basis of the technical quality of his proposal. Selection or based on quality.

62. (1) The contract may be negotiated with the selected consultant but negotiations may not be simultaneously held with several consultants. Contract award.

(2) The procuring entity shall notify its proposed award to all short-listed consultants at the same time it notifies the selected consultant, but where the value of the contract exceeds the levels set out in the regulations, the contract shall not be signed until at least 14 calendar days have passed following the giving of that notice.

(3) The selected consultant shall not be permitted to substitute key staff, unless both parties agree that undue delay in the selection process makes such changes unavoidable or that such changes are critical to meet the objectives of the assignment.

(4) The key staff proposed for substitution shall have qualifications equal to or better than the key staff initially proposed.

PART VII – COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

Right to review.

63. (1) A potential or actual bidder that claims to have suffered, or that is likely to suffer, loss or injury due to a breach of a duty imposed on the procuring entity by this Act, the regulations and the bidding document, may seek review in accordance with this Part, at any stage of the procurement processes.

(2) An application for review under subsection (1), shall not be entertained unless it identifies the specific act of omission or commission alleged to contravene this Act or the regulations and the bidding document.

(3) Where an application for review concerns alleged improprieties in the solicitation of applications to prequalify, or to solicitation of bids, which are apparent prior to bid opening, such applications shall be entertained only if submitted prior to bid opening.

Review by head of procuring entity.

64. (1) Prior to the entry into force of a contract, application for review shall be made, in the first instance, in writing, to the head of the procuring entity.

(2) The head of the procuring entity shall not entertain an application for review unless it was submitted within 14 calendar days, or when the bidder submitting it became aware of the circumstances giving rise to the complaint or of when that bidder should have become aware of those circumstances, whichever is earlier.

(3) Unless the complaint is resolved by mutual agreement, the head of the procuring entity shall suspend the procurement processes and shall, within five working days after submission of the complaint, issue a written decision, stating the reasons, and, if the complaint is upheld, indicating the corrective measures to be taken.

(4) If the Head of the procuring entity does not issue a decision within the time stated in subsection (3), or if the complainant is not satisfied with the decision of the head of the procuring entity, the complainant is entitled to submit a complaint to the Panel pursuant to section 65.

(5) Complaints under subsection (4) shall not be heard unless submitted to the Panel within ten working days from the elapse of the time stated in subsection (3) or from the date on which the entity's decision was communicated to the complainant.

65. (1) Subject to subsection (4), an application for review may be brought before the Panel in the following circumstances—

- (a) in the form of an appeal by the complaining bidder against a decision by the head of the procuring entity, provided that the appeal is submitted within ten working days of the date of the decision;
- (b) where the head of a procuring entity fails to render a decision within the required time frame, provided that the application for review is filed within ten working days of the expiry of the time for the decision by the head of the procuring entity referred to in subsection (3) of section 64;

Review by independent procurement review panel.

- (c) in the case where the contract has already entered into force, any application for review submitted in the first instance to the Panel shall not be entertained unless it is submitted to the Panel within ten working days of when the bidder submitting it became aware of the circumstances giving rise to the complaint or of when that bidder should have become aware of those circumstances, whichever is earlier.
- (d) in the form of an appeal by the complaining bidder against a decision by the Authority pursuant to a debarment process.

(2) In order for an application for review to be considered by the Panel, the application shall be accompanied by both an administrative fee and a complaint fee as specified in the regulations.

(3) The Panel shall make a decision under this section within ten working days after receiving the complaint.

- (4) A complaint may be dismissed for–
 - (a) failure to comply with any of the requirements of this Part;
 - (b) setting forth only allegations that do not state a valid basis for a complaint, or that do not set forth a detailed legal and factual statement;
 - (c) having been filed in an untimely manner, either at the initial level of review by the procuring entity, or with respect to deadlines for filing of a complaint with the Panel;

- (d) reasons relating to contract implementation or administration rather than contract award;
- (e) challenging an affirmative determination of qualifications of a competing bidder.

(5) Unless a complaint is dismissed, the remedies that may be ordered by the Panel include–

- (a) prohibiting the procuring entity from acting or deciding in an unauthorized manner or from following incorrect procedure;
- (b) annulling in whole or in part any unauthorised act or decision of a procuring entity, including contract award or any decision or act bringing the contract into force;
- (c) reversing a decision by the procuring entity or substituting its own decision for such a decision;
- (d) award of costs incurred in participating in the bidding process where the results were not in accordance with this Act or any regulation made under it.

(6) Where a timely submission of a complaint is made in accordance with deadlines set in this section the procurement processes shall be suspended until a decision on the complaint is issued by the Panel.

(7) The suspension under subsection (6) shall not apply if the procuring entity certifies to the Panel that urgent public interest considerations, such as natural disasters, medical emergencies, civil strife and outbreak of war, require the procurement to proceed.

(8) The certification, under subsection (7) shall state the grounds for the finding that urgent considerations exist and which shall be made a part of the record of the procurement processes, and shall be conclusive with respect to all levels of review, except judicial review.

(9) Where the Panel has found that a criminal act may have been committed, it shall forward its decision and recommendations to the competent authority for possible criminal investigations or prosecution

PART VIII – DISPOSAL OF STORES AND EQUIPMENT

Authority to dispose.

66. (1) Subject to sub-section (3) of section 5 of the National Assets Commission Act, 2000 the head of a procuring entity shall convene a Board of Survey comprising representatives of departments with unserviceable, obsolete or surplus stores, plant, equipment and vehicles which shall report on the items and, subject to a technical report on them, recommend the best method of disposal after the officer in charge has completed a Board of Survey form.

(2) The Board of Survey's recommendations shall be approved by the head of the procuring entity and the items shall be disposed of following disposal procedures specified in section 67.

(3) Where items become unserviceable for reasons other than fair wear and tear, such as through accident or expiry, a set procedure established by the Board for handling losses shall be followed before the items are boarded and disposed of.

Disposal procedures.

67. (1) Disposal of obsolete or surplus items shall be by–

- (a) transfer to government departments or other public entities, with or without financial adjustment;
- (b) sale by public bid to the highest bidder, subject to reserve price;
- (c) sale by public auction, subject to reserve price; or
- (d) destruction, dumping, or burying as appropriate.

PART IX – MISCELLANEOUS

Regulations.

68. (1) The Authority may by statutory instrument, make regulations for giving effect to this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), regulations made under this Act may provide for–

- (a) standard bidding documents, request for proposals and other forms to be used on a mandatory basis by procuring entities;
- (b) the preparation and submission of bids;
- (c) the manner of publication of the notice of procurement contract awards;
- (d) the margin of preference in the evaluation of bids;

- (e) the preparation and submission of applications to pre-qualify for a bids
- (f) detailed procedures for selection of consultants using methods other than those specified in sections 59 to 62;
- (g) procurement processes on the basis of nationality;
- (h) the procurement process where one entity or a specially appointed agent is to procure items on behalf of another entity;
- (i) the amendment of the thresholds for procurement methods and award of contracts under the First Schedule;
- (j) sample forms of the procurement plans;
- (k) print and electronic media acceptable for publication in compliance with this Act; and
- (l) on any other matter connected under this Act with public procurement.

Repeal of Act
No. 14 of 2004

69. (1) The Public Procurement Act, 2004 is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Public Procurement Act, 2004 under subsection (1), any order, rules, notices or regulation made under the repealed Act and in force immediately before the coming into force of this Act shall, unless revoked, continue in force.
