THIRD SESSION OF THE FOURTH PARLIAMENT OF THE SECOND REPUBLIC OF SIERRA LEONE

NINTH REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON APPOINTMENTS AND THE PUBLIC SERVICE ON PARLIAMENTARY VETTING OF PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATIONS

1. INTRODUCTION

Mr. Speaker, Honourable Members, the Committee on Appointments and the Public Service met on Monday 23rd March 2015 and interviewed Seven Presidential nominees for appointment as follows:

- i. High Court Judge
- ii. National Security Coordinator
- iii. Two Members, National Commission for Privatization (NCP)
- iv. Two Board Members, Sierra Leone Roads Authority(SLRA)
- v. Board Member, Sierra Leone State Lottery

2. PROCEDURE

The Committee conducted the hearings within its set framework of procedures. The nominees were interviewed on issues pertaining to their educational background to ensure that they have the relevant education and necessary backup experience to man such important offices of state. Further probing questions put to the nominees covered wide ranging issues relating to their track records in pertinent work situations, declared assets, tax obligations and their vision for a nationally productive tenure.

3. ELEVENTH SITTING OF THE COMMITTEE ON MONSDAY 23RD MARCH 2015

3:1 The following nominees were interviewed on oath:

i. Mr. Sengu Mohamed Koroma - Proposed Judge of the High Court

Mr. Sengu Mohamed Koroma is a private legal practitioner, a specialist in Corporate and Commercial Law who has acted as legal adviser to a number of corporate institutions. He had served as:

- i. Legal Counsel / Company Secretary and Acting Director of Administration, National Development Bank Limited 1997- 2000
- ii. Solicitor/Secretary, Director of Legal Affairs & Board Secretary, National Social Security and Insurance Trust (NASSIT) 2002-2013.

In 2013, he voluntarily resigned from NASSIT to establish a Law Firm, "Sengu Koroma & Co." 2012 to date, Mr. Sengu Koroma has been a part-time Lecturer, Department of Law, Fourah Bay College, University of Sierra Leone.

Responding to questions on what he would do about the huge back log of cases particularly in the High Court of Sierra Leone, Mr. Sengu Mohamed Koroma said that the increase in the back-log of cases is not necessarily caused by the Judiciary. The lawyers, he said, also contribute significantly in that direction. "From my experience as a Practitioner, I would say that there are two types of lawyers. Firstly, there are those professional lawyers who do not only look for remuneration but also want to make a name for themselves. Then there are those lawyers who believe that success is synonymous with wealth, so that their attention is geared towards making money at the detriment of their clients. These are the lawyers who do not go to court. They would receive money from their clients but fail to show up in court so that their matters are adjourned sine die. Once they receive another trench of payment, they would appear in court to resuscitate the matter. If lawyers regularly attend court and do so with their witnesses, the case-load will naturally be reduced. My view on the matter of adjournment is that, though it is the discretion of the judge, that discretion must be jealously guided."

ii. Mr. Ismail Sheriff Tarasid Tarawali - Proposed National Security Coordinator

Mr. Tarasid Tarawali has had a long sojourn in the Office of National Security (ONS). He joined the ONS in 2002 as an Assistant Team Leader, monitoring and Oversight Department (ONS). Through hard work, he rose through the ranks to the position of Deputy National Security Coordinator in 2013. He is now being promoted to the position of National Security Coordinator.

Responding to questions on the participation of Members of Parliament in ONS meetings at the constituency level, Mr. Tarawali said, "I think you have a role to play. You are very important stakeholders and we expect Members to visit us and our offices nationwide, to ask questions, give information and make suggestions because you are key players within your constituencies and your role is very important in what we do as a sector. Our meetings are open to key stakeholders."

.iii. Mrs. Hasiatu Gbassa Jalloh-Agbaje – Proposed Member, National Commission for Privatization

Mrs. Jalloh-Agbaje is the Managing Director/CEO of the First International Bank (SL) Ltd.. She joined the Bank in 2006 as General Manager, Credit and Marketing (2006-2010)

Answering to questions about the performance of road contractors, Mr. Makaya opined that some contractors do not give value for money. "That is one of the challenges we are going to face as a Board. I will ensure that we, the Board Members, work as a team to go after such contractors, monitor their performance to ensure that they keep to the terms of their contracts, and only approve final payments after satisfactory completion of the contracts."

vi. Dr. Lawrence R. Sesay – Proposed Board Member, Sierra Leone Roads Authority
