REPORT OF THE SIERRA LEONE PARLIAMENTARY DELEGATION TO THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

III - QUESTIONS

009 - HON. MOININA CONTEH: To ask the Minister Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation to inform this Honourable House:

- (i) The number of High Commissions and Embassies we have abroad and the number of staff in each High commission and embassy?
- (ii) The number of landed properties we own abroad and how much does each property cost?
- (iii) The number of rented properties and offices we have abroad and how much we are paying for them?
- (iv) how many overseas trips the Minister of Foreign Affairs and staff of her Ministry made in 2008 and the cost of such trips.

REPLY BY THE MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

- 010 - HON. MANIE BETTS-PRIDY: To ask the Minister of Foreign Affairs & International Cooperation to explain to this Honourable House:
- (a) the circumstances that led to the loss by the Sierra Leone Government of the use of the elegant and historic premises it occupied as Chancery at 33, Portland Place, London, W1, a premises we occupied even before Sierra Leone earned its independence in 1961. And what action was taken by the Government against those responsible and also to tell this Honourable House what lessons have been learnt from this episode so that other Embassies/High Commission's properties do not suffer the same fate?
 - (b) the Ministry's policy regarding the posting of officers to duty stations abroad vis-à-vis the maximum period officers should stay in post before being withdrawn or transferred? And also could the Minister give details to this House of any deviation from this policy and why such deviation has taken place? And what steps she is taking to put an end to this situation which, if not urgently addressed, could continue to negatively impact on staff morale in the Ministry?

II - QUESTIONS

006 - HON. ALPHA BABATUNDE LEWALLY : To ask the Minister Finance to explain to this Honourable House:

- (i) why Sierra Leonean Banks and other financial institutions are insisting that individuals wishing to transfer currency out of the country pay dollars to the banks etc; for the transfers instead of accepting the Leone equivalent which is our local tender?
- (ii) why is the Central Bank not properly regulating the exchange rate for the day to day running of businesses in the country? Why are the street dealers and the Banking institutions at par in terms of foreign currency exchange rates in the country
- (iii) this Honourable House would like the governor to explain in detail the causes of the rapid rise of the dollar in the country
- (iv) having regard to the inflow of new banks we would want to know what systems you have put in place to regulate the establishment and operations of these Banking institutions in Sierra Leone.
