PRESS RELEASE

ABOLITION OF DEATH PENALTY

Following the manifesto promise made by President Bio on the abolition of death penalty in Sierra Leone, the Attorney General and Minister of Justice, Anthony Y. Brewah will be in Parliament this morning on 15/07/2021 to discuss the abolition of the death penalty and its replacement with life imprisonment in the case of persons convicted in Sierra Leone for various offences including murder, treason, mutiny and robbery with aggravation.

In light of the above, Members of Parliament will today Thursday 15/07/2021, according to the Order Paper debate and abolish death penalty from the law books of Sierra Leone.
