ACP-EU JPA ARRIVES IN KENEMA

The Sierra Leone Parliamentary Delegation to the African Caribbean European Union (ACP-EU) Joint Parliamentary Assembly (JPA), headed by the Leader of Government Business, Hon. Mathew Sahr Nyuma has safely arrived in Kenema for a continued stakeholder discussion tomorrow (16/03/2021), 12:00 PM at the Kenema District Council Hall in respect of a Post-Cotonou Agreement.

Similar discussion will hold at the Port Loko District Council Hall on Wednesday 17th March 2021.

In light of the Cotonou Agreement, the JPA is a consultative body responsible for the promotion of democratic ideals through dialogue and consultation, creating understanding between people in the ACP-EU countries and raising public awareness on issues relating to development.

Regarding the post-cotonou agreement, the stakeholder discussion is designed to creating awareness among stakeholders including MPs, government officers, the media, local councils and civil society organizations by showcasing the impacts of ACP-EU partnership, and the way forward as we adopt the Post-Cotonou Agreement.
