PRESS RELEASE

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSES STRATEGIC PLAN OF PARLIAMENT

The Management of the Parliament of Sierra Leone including the Clerk of Parliament, Directors, Deputy Directors and Heads of Units are currently discussing at the New Brookfield Hotel, Freetown whether departmental plans are in synched with its Strategic Plan for 2021-2025.

The discussions are ongoing at the New Brookfield Hotel today Tuesday 4/5/2021 mainly to align departmental plans with the objectives or activities in the Parliament's Strategic Plan.

The workshop and Strategic Plan is supported by the European Union.

Speaking on behalf of the Clerk of Parliament, Finda Fraser, Director of DePAC (Department of Parliamentary Assistance and Coordination) encouraged colleagues to follow through and ensure that departmental plans are in line with the objectives and activities set forth in the Strategic Plan.

Speaking on the implementation matrix, she called on management to focus on key priority areas that are in line with departmental plans and the Strategic Plan.

European Union Representative, N'fa Kargbo responsible for Governace and Civil Society Section assured of EU's continued support to Parliament and promised effective partnership and collaboration with Parliament in order to achieve its set goals and objectives; adding the EU is in haste to ensure that Parliament attains its goals and objectives.

Directors, Deputy Directors and Heads of Units are making presentations that are aligned with the Strategic Plan.
