

PARLIAMENT OF SIERRA LEONE

Parliament Building - O.A.U Drive, Tower Hill, Freetown | admin@parliament.gov.sl | www.parliament.gov.sl

8th February, 2024

PRESS RELEASE

PARLIAMENT HONOURS LATE HONOURABLE AMBASSADOR DAUDA SULAIMAN KAMARA

The Parliament of Sierra Leone has on Thursday, 08/02/2024 laid in-state and signed the Book of Condolences for the Late Hon.Ambassador Dauda Sulaiman Kamara at the State Hall of Parliament in Freetown.

In attendance were the Speaker of Parliament, Rt. Hon.Dr. Abass Chernor Bundu, the Leadership of Parliament, MPs, Ministers, APC party stalwarts, Statesmen, and family members.

The late Statesman according to the chairman and master of ceremony, Sheku Lamain Turay was a dedicated Sierra Leonean who had served the nation diligently.

He said during the deceased time in Parliament, he was Deputy Minority Leader of APC and later Minister of Government and Ambassador to several countries around the world.

In his tribute, the Leader of Government Business Hon.Mathew Nyuma described the deceased as someone who stood tall to serve humanity. "He was known for his political tolerance" he disclosed and heaped praise on him for his positive attributes. He told distinguished mourners that, the deceased footprints for the truth were earmarked by many people. He used the opportunity to advise the mourners and politicians to follow the late man's footsteps, especially in speaking the truth.

Speaking on behalf of the APC, Hon. Ambassador Osman Foday Yanseneh said the deceased served Sierra Leone diligently. He stressed on the late's integrity and told distinguished mourners that his parting would leave an indelible mark on the APC. He recalled the deceased contributions to imparting knowledge in education, leadership, and service delivery. He said the deceased revived the APC and extensively spoke on his instrumental role.

In his tribute as a family member, the former Vice President of Sierra Leone, Chief Alhaji Samuel Samsumana said the country has lost a fallen hero who loved his family. He described the late personality as a mentor, teacher, and one who served the nation with an impeccable character. He recalled many other attributes of the deceased. "You served the nation of Sierra Leone, not only the Limba Community" he revealed.

Former Member of Parliament and close friend, Hon. Ambassador Ibrahim Sorie described the deceased as a Parliamentary icon. He was not just an Elder Brother, he said but a teacher with unshakable records in Parliament.

"He was a man of all seasons, a man of all corners" he maintained and recalled his impressive contributions to the APC.

"We will continue to remember him for his good deeds and fairness" he disclosed.

Parliamentary and Public Relations Department

Parliament of Sierra Leone

+23278495023/+23278426851/+23278697776