

PARLIAMENT OF SIERRA LEONE

Parliament Building - O.A.U Drive, Tower Hill, Freetown | admin@parliament.gov.sl | www.parliament.gov.sl

17th January, 2025

PRESS RELEASE

SPEAKER THOMAS PLAYS HOST TO NEW BRITISH HIGH COMMISSIONER

The New British High Commissioner to Sierra Leone Josephine Gaud, and the Political Secretary of the British High Commission Jack Burne, have on Friday 17/1/2025 paid a courtesy call on the Rt.Hon. Speaker of Parliament Hon.Segepoh Solomon Thomas at his office in Parliament, Freetown.

Welcoming the British High Commissioner to the Sierra Leone Parliament, the Rt.Hon. Segepoh Solomon Thomas appreciated the visit and underscored the importance of the Parliament towards the development of the State.

The British High Commissioner expressed delight to have visited the Speaker of Sierra Leone Parliament. She assured that her visit was to deepen the indelible bilateral relationship between the two nations.

In their discussion, issues of current legislation before the House were discussed such as the Safe motherhood bill, the child right Act and the three gender bills that were passed by the House.

In light of the Visit, a conducted tour was done in the Parliament library, the Chamber of Parliament and the grave site of the late Sir Milton Margai and Siaka P. Steven .

The Rt Hon. Speaker briefed the High Commissioner and her team on the work of Parliament and its activities.

Parliamentary and Public Relations Department, Sierra Leone Parliament.

Contact: +23278495023/+23276625960/+23278424852/+23278697776/+23277473804.